

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS, COMMONLY CALLED, THE THIRD BOOK OF THE KINGS

CHAPTER 1

Now king Dā-vīd was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Īś-rā-ēl, and found Āb-ī-shāg a Shû-nām-mīte, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

5 ¶ Then Ād-ō-nī-jāh the son of Hāg-gīth exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Āb-sā-lom.

7 And he conferred with Jō-āb the son of Zēr-ū-ī-āh, and with Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest: and they following Ād-ō-nī-jāh helped him.

8 But Zā-dōk the priest, and Bē-naī-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā, and Nā-thān the prophet, and Shīm-ē-ī, and Rē-ī, and the mighty men which belonged to Dā-vīd, were not with Ād-ō-nī-jāh.

9 And Ād-ō-nī-jāh slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zō-hē-lēth, which is by Ĕn-rō-gēl, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Jūd-āh the king's servants:

10 But Nā-thān the prophet, and Bē-naī-āh, and the mighty men, and Sōl-ō-mōn his brother, he called not.

11 ¶ Wherefore Nā-thān spake unto Bāth-shē-bā the mother of Sōl-ō-mōn, saying, Hast thou not heard that Ād-ō-nī-jāh the son of Hāg-gīth doth reign, and Dā-vīd our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Sōl-ō-mōn.

13 Go and get thee in unto king Dā-vīd, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Sōl-ō-mōn thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Ād-ō-nī-jāh reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bāth-shē-bā went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Āb-ī-shāg the Shû-nām-mīte ministered unto the king.

16 And Bāth-shē-bā bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, What wouldest thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Sōl-ō-mōn thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Ād-ō-nī-jāh reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest, and Jō-āb the captain of the host: but Sōl-ō-mōn thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Īś-rā-ēl are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Sōl-ō-mōn shall be counted offenders.

22 ¶ And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nā-thān the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nā-thān the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nā-thān said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Ād-ō-nī-jāh shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Ād-ō-nī-jāh.

26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zā-dōk the priest, and Bē-naī-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā, and thy servant Sōl-ō-mōn, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king Dā-vīd answered and said, Call me Bāth-shē-bā. And she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress,

30 Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, saying, Assuredly Sōl-ō-mōn thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

31 Then Bāth-shē-bā bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king Dā-vīd live for ever.

32 ¶ And king Dā-vīd said, Call me Zā-dōk the priest, and Nā-thān the prophet, and Bē-naī-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Sōl-ō-mōn my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gī-hōn:

34 And let Zā-dōk the priest and Nā-thān the prophet anoint him there king over Īś-rā-ēl: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Sōl-ō-mōn.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Īś-rā-ēl and over Jūd-āh.

36 And Bē-naī-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā answered the king, and said, Ā-mēn: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Sōl-ō-mōn, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king Dā-vīd.

38 So Zā-dōk the priest, and Nā-thān the prophet, and Bē-naī-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā, and the Chēr-ē-thītes, and the Pēl-ē-thītes, went down, and caused Sōl-ō-mōn to ride upon king Dā-vīd's mule, and brought him to Gī-hōn.

39 And Zā-dōk the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Sōl-ō-mōn. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Sōl-ō-mōn.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Ād-ō-nī-jāh and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Jō-āb heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jōn-ā-thān the son of Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest came: and Ād-ō-nī-jāh said unto him, Come in; for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jōn-ā-thān answered and said to Ād-ō-nī-jāh, Verily our lord king Dā-vīd hath made Sōl-ō-mōn king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zā-dōk the priest, and Nā-thān the prophet, and Bē-nāi-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā, and the Chēr-ē-thītes, and the Pēl-ē-thītes, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zā-dōk the priest and Nā-thān the prophet have anointed him king in Gī-hōn: and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Sōl-ō-mōn sitteth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king Dā-vīd, saying, God make the name of Sōl-ō-mōn better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. And the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Īs-rā-ēl, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Ād-ō-nī-jāh were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Ād-ō-nī-jāh feared because of Sōl-ō-mōn, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Sōl-ō-mōn, saying, Behold, Ād-ō-nī-jāh feareth king Sōl-ō-mōn: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Sōl-ō-mōn swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Sōl-ō-mōn said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Sōl-ō-mōn sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Sōl-ō-mōn: and Sōl-ō-mōn said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAPTER 2

Now the days of Dā-vīd drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Sōl-ō-mōn his son, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Mō-sēs, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself:

4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Īs-rā-ēl.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what Jō-āb the son of Zēr-ū-ī-āh did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Īs-rā-ēl, unto Āb-nēr the son of Nēr, and unto Ā-mā-sā the son of Jē-thēr, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Bār-zīl-lā-ī the Gīl-ē-ād-īte, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Āb-sā-lōm thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shīm-ē-ī the son of Gē-rā, a

Bēn-jā-mīte of Bā-hū-rīm, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mā-hā-nā-īm: but he came down to meet me at Jōr-dān, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So Dā-vīd slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of Dā-vīd.

11 And the days that Dā-vīd reigned over Īs-rā-ēl were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hē-brōn, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jē-rū-sā-lēm.

12 ¶ Then sat Sōl-ō-mōn upon the throne of Dā-vīd his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 ¶ And Ād-ō-nī-jāh the son of Hāg-gīth came to Bāth-shē-bā the mother of Sōl-ō-mōn. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Īs-rā-ēl set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Sōl-ō-mōn the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Āb-ī-shāg the Shū-nām-mīte to wife.

18 And Bāth-shē-bā said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 ¶ Bāth-shē-bā therefore went unto king Sōl-ō-mōn, to speak unto him for Ād-ō-nī-jāh. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Āb-ī-shāg the Shū-nām-mīte be given to Ād-ō-nī-jāh thy brother to wife.

22 And king Sōl-ō-mōn answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Āb-ī-shāg the Shū-nām-mīte for Ād-ō-nī-jāh? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest, and for Jō-āb the son of Zēr-ū-ī-āh.

23 Then king Sōl-ō-mōn swore by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Ād-ō-nī-jāh have not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of Dā-vīd my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Ād-ō-nī-jāh shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Sōl-ō-mōn sent by the hand of Bē-nāi-āh the son of Jē-hoi-ā-dā; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 ¶ And unto Ā-bī-ā-thār the priest said the king, Get thee to Ān-ā-thōth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the Lord GOD before Dā-vīd my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Sōl-ō-mōn thrust out Ā-bī-ā-thār from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Ē-lī in Shī-lōh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Jō-āb: for Jō-āb had turned after Ād-ō-nī-jāh, though he turned not after Āb-sā-lōm. And Jō-āb fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Söl'ō-mōn that Jō'āb was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Söl'ō-mōn sent Bě-nāi'āh the son of Jě-hoi'ā-dā, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Bě-nāi'āh came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Bě-nāi'āh brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Jō'āb, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Jō'āb shed, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father Dā'vīd not knowing thereof, to wit, Āb'nēr the son of Nēr, captain of the host of Īs'rā-ēl, and Ā-mā-sā the son of Jē-thēr, captain of the host of Jūd'āh.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Jō'āb, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon Dā'vīd, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So Bě-nāi'āh the son of Jě-hoi'ā-dā went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 ¶ And the king put Bě-nāi'āh the son of Jě-hoi'ā-dā in his room over the host: and Zā-dōk the priest did the king put in the room of Ā-bī'ā-thār.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for Šīm'ē-ī, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jě-rū'sā-lēm, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kī-drōn, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Šīm'ē-ī said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Šīm'ē-ī dwelt in Jě-rū'sā-lēm many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Šīm'ē-ī ran away unto Ā'chīsh son of Mā'ā-chāh king of Gāth. And they told Šīm'ē-ī, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gāth.

40 And Šīm'ē-ī arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gāth to Ā'chīsh to seek his servants: and Šīm'ē-ī went, and brought his servants from Gāth.

41 And it was told Söl'ō-mōn that Šīm'ē-ī had gone from Jě-rū'sā-lēm to Gāth, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Šīm'ē-ī, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Šīm'ē-ī, Thou knowest all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to Dā'vīd my father: therefore the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Söl'ō-mōn shall be blessed, and the throne of Dā'vīd shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Bě-nāi'āh the son of Jě-hoi'ā-dā; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Söl'ō-mōn.

CHAPTER 3

AND Söl'ō-mōn made affinity with Phâr'āoh king of Ē'gypt, and took Phâr'āoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of Dā'vīd, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jě-rū'sā-lēm round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Söl'ō-mōn loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of Dā'vīd his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gib'ē-ōn to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Söl'ō-mōn offer upon that altar.

5 ¶ In Gib'ē-ōn the LORD appeared to Söl'ō-mōn in a dream by night: and God said, Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Söl'ō-mōn said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant Dā'vīd my father great mercy, according as he walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of Dā'vīd my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an understanding heart to judge thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Söl'ō-mōn had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to discern judgment;

12 Behold, I have done according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches, and honour: so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father Dā'vīd did walk, then I will lengthen thy days.

15 And Söl'ō-mōn awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jě-rū'sā-lēm, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

16 ¶ Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Īś-rā-ēl heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do judgment.

CHAPTER 4

So king Sōl-ō-mōn was king over all Īś-rā-ēl.

2 And these were the princes which he had; Āz-ā-rī-āh the son of Zā-dōk the priest,

3 Ē-lī-hōr-ēph and Ā-hī-āh, the sons of Shī-shā, scribes; Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the son of Ā-hī-lūd, the recorder.

4 And Bē-nāi-āh the son of Jē-hōi-ā-dā was over the host: and Zā-dōk and Ā-bī-ā-thār were the priests:

5 And Āz-ā-rī-āh the son of Nā-thān was over the officers: and Zā-būd the son of Nā-thān was principal officer, and the king's friend:

6 And Ā-hī-shār was over the household: and Ād-ō-nī-rām the son of Āb-dā was over the tribute.

7 ¶ And Sōl-ō-mōn had twelve officers over all Īś-rā-ēl, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: The son of Hūr, in mount Ē-phrā-īm:

9 The son of Dē-kār, in Mā-kāz, and in Shā-āl-bīm, and Bēth-shē-mēsh, and Ē-lōn-bēth-hā-nān:

10 The son of Hē-sēd, in Ā-rū-bōth; to him pertained Sō-chōh, and all the land of Hē-phēr:

11 The son of Ā-bīn-ā-dāb, in all the region of Dōr; which had Tā-phāth the daughter of Sōl-ō-mōn to wife:

12 Bā-ā-nā the son of Ā-hī-lūd; to him pertained Tā-ā-nāch and Mē-gīd-dō, and all Bēth-shē-ān, which is by Zār-tā-nāh beneath Jēz-reēl, from Bēth-shē-ān to Ā-bēl-mē-hō-lāh, even unto the place that is beyond Jōk-nē-ām:

13 The son of Gē-bēr, in Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād; to him pertained the towns of Jā-īr the son of Mā-nās-sēh, which are in Gīl-ē-ād; to him also pertained the region of Ār-gōb, which is in Bā-shān, threescore great cities with walls and brasen bars:

14 Ā-hīn-ā-dāb the son of Īd-dō had Mā-hā-nā-īm:

15 Ā-hī-mā-āz was in Nāph-tā-lī; he also took Bās-māth the daughter of Sōl-ō-mōn to wife:

16 Bā-ā-nāh the son of Hū-shāi was in Āsh-ēr and in Ā-lōth:

17 Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the son of Pā-rū-āh, in Īś-sā-chār:

18 Shīm-ē-ī the son of Ē-lāh, in Bēn-jā-mīn:

19 Gē-bēr the son of Ū-rī was in the country of Gīl-ē-ād, in the country of Sī-hōn king of the Ām-ō-rītes, and of Ōg king of Bā-shān; and he was the only officer which was in the land.

20 ¶ Jūd-āh and Īś-rā-ēl were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Sōl-ō-mōn reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Phīl-īs-tīneš, and unto the border of Ē-gypt: they brought presents, and served Sōl-ō-mōn all the days of his life.

22 ¶ And Sōl-ō-mōn's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal,

23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tīph-sāh even to Āz-zāh, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Jūd-āh and Īś-rā-ēl dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dān even to Bēer-shē-bā, all the days of Sōl-ō-mōn.

26 ¶ And Sōl-ō-mōn had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Sōl-ō-mōn, and for all that came unto king Sōl-ō-mōn's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And God gave Sōl-ō-mōn wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Sōl-ō-mōn's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Ē-gypt.

31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ē-thān the Ēz-rā-hīte, and Hē-mān, and Chāl-cōl, and Dār-dā, the sons of Mā-hōl: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lēb-ā-nōn even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Sōl-ō-mōn, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

AND Hī-rām king of Tyre sent his servants unto Sōl-ō-mōn; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hī-rām was ever a lover of Dā-vid.

2 And Sōl-ō-mōn sent to Hī-rām, saying,

3 Thou knowest how that Dā-vid my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto Dā-vid my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lēb-ā-nōn; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Šī-dō-nī-āns.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when Hī-rām heard the words of Sōl-ō-mōn, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto Dā'-vīd a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hī-rām sent to Sōl'-ō-mōn, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lēb'-ā-nōn unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.

10 So Hī-rām gave Sōl'-ō-mōn cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.

11 And Sōl'-ō-mōn gave Hī-rām twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Sōl'-ō-mōn to Hī-rām year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Sōl'-ō-mōn wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hī-rām and Sōl'-ō-mōn; and they two made a league together.

13 ¶ And king Sōl'-ō-mōn raised a levy out of all Īś-rā-ēl; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lēb'-ā-nōn, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lēb'-ā-nōn, and two months at home: and Ād-ō-nī-rām was over the levy.

15 And Sōl'-ō-mōn had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

16 Beside the chief of Sōl'-ō-mōn's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Sōl'-ō-mōn's builders and Hī-rām's builders did hew them, and the stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

AND it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Īś-rā-ēl were come out of the land of Ē-gypt, in the fourth year of Sōl'-ō-mōn's reign over Īś-rā-ēl, in the month Zīf, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And the house which king Sōl'-ō-mōn built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about:

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Sōl'-ō-mōn, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto Dā'-vīd thy father:

13 And I will dwell among the children of Īś-rā-ēl, and will not forsake my people Īś-rā-ēl.

14 So Sōl'-ō-mōn built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Sōl'-ō-mōn overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two chēr'-ū-bīms of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the chēr'-ūb, and five cubits the other wing of the chēr'-ūb: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other chēr'-ūb was ten cubits: both the chēr'-ū-bīms were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one chēr'-ūb was ten cubits, and so was it of the other chēr'-ūb.

27 And he set the chēr'-ū-bīms within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the chēr'-ū-bīms, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other chēr'-ūb touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the chēr'-ū-bīms with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of chēr'-ū-bīms and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the chēr'-ū-bīms, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon chěr'-ū-bĭms and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 ¶ And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 ¶ In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Būl, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

BUT Sōl'-ō-mōn was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.

2 ¶ He built also the house of the forest of Lēb'-ā-nōn; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 ¶ And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.

7 ¶ Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other.

8 ¶ And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Sōl'-ō-mōn made also an house for Phār'-āōh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.

12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.

13 ¶ And king Sōl'-ō-mōn sent and fetched Hī'-rām out of Tÿre.

14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Nāph'-tā-lī, and his father was a man of Tÿre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Sōl'-ō-mōn, and wrought all his work.

15 For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits:

17 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapter.

21 And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jā'-chīn: and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Bō'-āz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.

25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand bāths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and chěr'-ū-bĭms: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersettors: under the laver were undersettors molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersettors to the four corners of one base: and the undersettors were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved chěr'-ū-bĭms, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 ¶ Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty bāths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.

40 ¶ And Hī-rām made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hī-rām made an end of doing all the work that he made king Sōl-ō-mōn for the house of the LORD:

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hī-rām made to king Sōl-ō-mōn for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass.

46 In the plain of Jōr-dān did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Sūc-cōth and Zār-thān.

47 And Sōl-ō-mōn left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.

48 And Sōl-ō-mōn made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was,

49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold,

50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Sōl-ō-mōn made for the house of the LORD. And Sōl-ō-mōn brought in the things which Dā-vīd his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

THEN Sōl-ō-mōn assembled the elders of Īś-rā-ēl, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Īś-rā-ēl, unto king Sōl-ō-mōn in Jē-rū-sā-lēm, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of Dā-vīd, which is Zī-ōn.

2 And all the men of Īś-rā-ēl assembled themselves unto king Sōl-ō-mōn at the feast in the month Ēth-ā-nīm, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Īś-rā-ēl came, and the priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Lē-vītes bring up.

5 And king Sōl-ō-mōn, and all the congregation of Īś-rā-ēl, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the chēr-ū-bīms.

7 For the chēr-ū-bīms spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the chēr-ū-bīms covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen out in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Mō-šēs put there at Hōr-ēb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Īś-rā-ēl, when they came out of the land of Ē-gypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD,

11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 ¶ Then spake Sōl-ō-mōn, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

13 I have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Īś-rā-ēl: (and all the congregation of Īś-rā-ēl stood;)

15 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, which spake with his mouth unto Dā-vīd my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Īś-rā-ēl out of Ē-gypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Īś-rā-ēl to build an house, that my name might be therein; but I chose Dā-vīd to be over my people Īś-rā-ēl.

17 And it was in the heart of Dā-vīd my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl.

18 And the LORD said unto Dā-vīd my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart.

19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of Dā-vīd my father, and sit on the throne of Īś-rā-ēl, as the LORD promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Ē-gypt.

22 ¶ And Sōl-ō-mōn stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Īś-rā-ēl, and spread forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant Dā-vīd my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, keep with thy servant Dā-vīd my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Īś-rā-ēl; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Īś-rā-ēl, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant Dā-vīd my father.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 ¶ If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 ¶ When thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 ¶ When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 ¶ If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)

40 That they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake;

42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.

44 ¶ If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captives unto the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 Yet if they shall bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;

48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause,

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Ē-ġypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Mō-šēš thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Ē-ġypt, O Lord GOD.

54 And it was so, that when Sōl-ō-mōn had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of ʾĪś-rā-ēl with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people ʾĪś-rā-ēl, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Mō-šēš his servant.

57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people ʾĪś-rā-ēl at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ And the king, and all ʾĪś-rā-ēl with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

63 And Sōl-ō-mōn offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of ʾĪś-rā-ēl dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And at that time Sōl-ō-mōn held a feast, and all ʾĪś-rā-ēl with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hā-māth unto the river of Ē-ġypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for Dā-vīd his servant, and for Īś-rā-ēl his people.

CHAPTER 9

AND it came to pass, when Sōl-ō-mōn had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Sōl-ō-mōn's desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That the LORD appeared to Sōl-ō-mōn the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gīb-ē-ōn.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as Dā-vīd thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Īś-rā-ēl for ever, as I promised to Dā-vīd thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Īś-rā-ēl.

6 But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I cut off Īś-rā-ēl out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Īś-rā-ēl shall be a proverb and a byword among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Ē-gypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Sōl-ō-mōn had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,

11 (Now Hī-rām the king of Tÿre had furnished Sōl-ō-mōn with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Sōl-ō-mōn gave Hī-rām twenty cities in the land of Gāl-ī-lēe.

12 And Hī-rām came out from Tÿre to see the cities which Sōl-ō-mōn had given him; and they pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cā-bûl unto this day.

14 And Hī-rām sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the reason of the levy which king Sōl-ō-mōn raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Mīl-lō, and the wall of Jē-rû-sā-lēm, and Hā-zôr, and Mē-gīd-dō, and Gē-zēr.

16 For Phâr-āōh king of Ē-gypt had gone up, and taken Gē-zēr, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Cā-nā-ān-ites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Sōl-ō-mōn's wife.

17 And Sōl-ō-mōn built Gē-zēr, and Bēth-hôr-ōn the nether,

18 And Bā-ā-lāth, and Tād-môr in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of store that Sōl-ō-mōn had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Sōl-ō-mōn desired to build in Jē-rû-sā-lēm, and in Lēb-ā-nōn, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were left of the Ām-ō-rītes, Hīt-tītes,

Pē-rīz-zītes, Hī-vītes, and Jēb-ū-sītes, which were not of the children of Īś-rā-ēl,

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Īś-rā-ēl also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Sōl-ō-mōn levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.

22 But of the children of Īś-rā-ēl did Sōl-ō-mōn make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Sōl-ō-mōn's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But Phâr-āōh's daughter came up out of the city of Dā-vīd unto her house which Sōl-ō-mōn had built for her: then did he build Mīl-lō.

25 ¶ And three times in a year did Sōl-ō-mōn offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ And king Sōl-ō-mōn made a navy of ships in Ē-zī-ōn-gē-bēr, which is beside Ē-lōth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Ē-dōm.

27 And Hī-rām sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Sōl-ō-mōn.

28 And they came to Ō-phīr, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Sōl-ō-mōn.

CHAPTER 10

AND when the queen of Shē-bā heard of the fame of Sōl-ō-mōn concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jē-rû-sā-lēm with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Sōl-ō-mōn, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Sōl-ō-mōn told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Shē-bā had seen all Sōl-ō-mōn's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Īś-rā-ēl: because the LORD loved Īś-rā-ēl for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Shē-bā gave to king Sōl-ō-mōn.

11 And the navy also of Hī-rām, that brought gold from Ō-phīr, brought in from Ō-phīr great plenty of āl-müg trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the āl-müg trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such āl-müg trees, nor were seen unto this day.

13 And king Söl'ō-mōn gave unto the queen of Shē'bā all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Söl'ō-mōn gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Söl'ō-mōn in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,

15 Beside that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Ā-rā-bi-a, and of the governors of the country.

16 ¶ And king Söl'ō-mōn made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shē-kēls of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lēb'ā-nōn.

18 ¶ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

21 ¶ And all king Söl'ō-mōn's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lēb'ā-nōn were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Söl'ō-mōn.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Thār'shish with the navy of Hī'rām: once in three years came the navy of Thār'shish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So king Söl'ō-mōn exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 ¶ And all the earth sought to Söl'ō-mōn, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 ¶ And Söl'ō-mōn gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jē-rū-sā-lēm.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jē-rū-sā-lēm as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 ¶ And Söl'ō-mōn had horses brought out of Ē'gypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Ē'gypt for six hundred shē-kēls of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hīt'tites, and for the kings of Sŷr'ā, did they bring them out by their means.

CHAPTER 11

BUT king Söl'ō-mōn loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Phār'āōh, women of the Mō'āb-ites, Ām'mōn-ites, Ē'dōm-ites, Zī-dō-nī-āns, and Hīt'tites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Īś-rā-ēl, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Söl'ō-mōn clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Söl'ō-mōn was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of Dā'vīd his father.

5 For Söl'ō-mōn went after Āsh-tō-rēth the goddess of the Zī-dō-nī-āns, and after Mīl'cōm the abomination of the Ām'mōn-ites.

6 And Söl'ō-mōn did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did Dā'vīd his father.

7 Then did Söl'ō-mōn build an high place for Chē'mōsh, the abomination of Mō'āb, in the hill that is before Jē-rū-sā-lēm, and for Mō'lēch, the abomination of the children of Ām'mōn.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 ¶ And the LORD was angry with Söl'ō-mōn, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, which had appeared unto him twice,

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Söl'ō-mōn, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for Dā'vīd thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for Dā'vīd my servant's sake, and for Jē-rū-sā-lēm's sake which I have chosen.

14 ¶ And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Söl'ō-mōn, Hā'dād the Ē'dōm-ite: he was of the king's seed in Ē'dōm.

15 For it came to pass, when Dā'vīd was in Ē'dōm, and Jō'āb the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Ē'dōm;

16 (For six months did Jō'āb remain there with all Īś-rā-ēl, until he had cut off every male in Ē'dōm:)

17 That Hā'dād fled, he and certain Ē'dōm-ites of his father's servants with him, to go into Ē'gypt; Hā'dād being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Mīd'ān, and came to Pār'ān: and they took men with them out of Pār'ān, and they came to Ē'gypt, unto Phār'āōh king of Ē'gypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hā'dād found great favour in the sight of Phār'āōh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tāh'pēn-ēs the queen.

20 And the sister of Tāh'pēn-ēs bare him Gē-nū'bāth his son, whom Tāh'pēn-ēs weaned in Phār'āōh's house: and Gē-nū'bāth was in Phār'āōh's household among the sons of Phār'āōh.

21 And when Hā'dād heard in Ē'gypt that Dā'vīd slept with his fathers, and that Jō'āb the captain of the host was dead, Hā'dād said to Phār'āōh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Phār'āōh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, Rē-zōn the son of Ē-lī'ā-dāh, which fled from his lord Hād'ā-dē'zēr king of Zō'bāh:

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when Dā'vīd slew them of Zō'bāh: and they went to Dā-mās-cūs, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Dā-mās-cūs.

25 And he was an adversary to Īś-rā-ēl all the days of Söl'ō-mōn, beside the mischief that Hā'dād did: and he abhorred Īś-rā-ēl, and reigned over Sŷr'ā.

26 ¶ And Jēr-ō-bō'ām the son of Nē'bāt, an Ēph-rā-thīte of Zēr-ē-dā, Sōl-ō-mōn's servant, whose mother's name was Zē-rū-āh, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Sōl-ō-mōn built Mīl-lō, and repaired the breaches of the city of Dā-vid his father.

28 And the man Jēr-ō-bō-ām was a mighty man of valour: and Sōl-ō-mōn seeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Jō-šēph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jēr-ō-bō-ām went out of Jē-rū-sā-lēm, that the prophet Ā-hī-jāh the Shī-lō-nīte found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ā-hī-jāh caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jēr-ō-bō-ām, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Īs-rā-ēl, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Sōl-ō-mōn, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant Dā-vid's sake, and for Jē-rū-sā-lēm's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Īs-rā-ēl:)

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Āsh-tō-rēth the goddess of the Zī-dō-nī-āns, Chē-mōsh the god of the Mō-āb-ites, and Mīl-cōm the god of the children of Ām-mōn, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did Dā-vid his father.

34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him prince all the days of his life for Dā-vid my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that Dā-vid my servant may have a light alway before me in Jē-rū-sā-lēm, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Īs-rā-ēl.

38 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as Dā-vid my servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for Dā-vid, and will give Īs-rā-ēl unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of Dā-vid, but not for ever.

40 Sōl-ō-mōn sought therefore to kill Jēr-ō-bō-ām. And Jēr-ō-bō-ām arose, and fled into Ē-gypt, unto Shī-shāk king of Ē-gypt, and was in Ē-gypt until the death of Sōl-ō-mōn.

41 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Sōl-ō-mōn, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Sōl-ō-mōn?

42 And the time that Sōl-ō-mōn reigned in Jē-rū-sā-lēm over all Īs-rā-ēl was forty years.

43 And Sōl-ō-mōn slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of Dā-vid his father: and Rē-hō-bō-ām his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 12

AND Rē-hō-bō-ām went to Shē-chēm: for all Īs-rā-ēl were come to Shē-chēm to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt, who was yet in Ē-gypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Sōl-ō-mōn, and Jēr-ō-bō-ām dwelt in Ē-gypt:)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jēr-ō-bō-ām and all the congregation of Īs-rā-ēl came, and spake unto Rē-hō-bō-ām, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rē-hō-bō-ām consulted with the old men, that stood before Sōl-ō-mōn his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 ¶ So Jēr-ō-bō-ām and all the people came to Rē-hō-bō-ām the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake by Ā-hī-jāh the Shī-lō-nīte unto Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt.

16 ¶ So when all Īs-rā-ēl saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in Dā-vid? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jēs-sē: to your tents, O Īs-rā-ēl: now see to thine own house, Dā-vid. So Īs-rā-ēl departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Īs-rā-ēl which dwelt in the cities of Jūd-āh, Rē-hō-bō-ām reigned over them.

18 Then king Rē-hō-bō-ām sent Ā-dōr-ām, who was over the tribute; and all Īs-rā-ēl stoned him with stones, that he died. Therefore king Rē-hō-bō-ām made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jē-rū-sā-lēm.

19 So Īs-rā-ēl rebelled against the house of Dā-vid unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Īs-rā-ēl heard that Jēr-ō-bō-ām was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Īs-rā-ēl: there was none that followed the house of Dā-vid, but the tribe of Jūd-āh only.

21 ¶ And when Rē-hō-bō-ām was come to Jē-rū-sā-lēm, he assembled all the house of Jūd-āh, with the tribe of Bēn-jā-mīn, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Īs-rā-ēl, to bring the kingdom again to Rē-hō-bō-ām the son of Sōl-ō-mōn.

22 But the word of God came unto Shēm-āi-āh the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rē-hō-bō-ām, the son of Sōl-ō-mōn, king of Jūd-āh, and unto all the house of Jūd-āh and Bēn-jā-mīn, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Īś-rā-ēl: return every man to his house; for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 ¶ Then Jēr-ō-bō-ām built Shē-chēm in mount Ē-phrā-īm, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Pēn-ū-ēl.

26 And Jēr-ō-bō-ām said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of Dā-vīd:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jē-rū-sā-lēm, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rē-hō-bō-ām king of Jūd-āh, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rē-hō-bō-ām king of Jūd-āh.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jē-rū-sā-lēm: behold thy gods, O Īś-rā-ēl, which brought thee up out of the land of Ē-gypt.

29 And he set the one in Bēth-ēl, and the other put he in Dān.

30 And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dān.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Lē-vī.

32 And Jēr-ō-bō-ām ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast that is in Jūd-āh, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bēth-ēl, sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bēth-ēl the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Bēth-ēl the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Īś-rā-ēl: and he offered upon the altar, and burnt incense.

AND, behold, there came a man of God out of Jūd-āh by the word of the LORD unto Bēth-ēl: and Jēr-ō-bō-ām stood by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of Dā-vīd, Jō-sī-āh by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king Jēr-ō-bō-ām heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bēth-ēl, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bēth-ēl.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bēth-ēl; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bēth-ēl: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Jūd-āh.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Jūd-āh? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Jūd-āh, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath torn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went and found his carcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcase, nor torn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to mourn and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones:

32 For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bēth-ēl, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Sā-mār-ī-ā, shall surely come to pass.

33 ¶ After this thing Jēr-ō-bō-ām returned not from his evil way, but made again of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER 14

AT that time Ā-bī-jāh the son of Jēr-ō-bō-ām fell sick.

2 And Jēr-ō-bō-ām said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jēr-ō-bō-ām; and get thee to Shī-lōh: behold, there is Ā-hī-jāh the prophet, which told me that I should be king over this people.

3 And take with thee ten loaves, and cracknels, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jēr-ō-bō-ām's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shī-lōh, and came to the house of Ā-hī-jāh. But Ā-hī-jāh could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age.

5 ¶ And the LORD said unto Ā-hī-jāh, Behold, the wife of Jēr-ō-bō-ām cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ā-hī-jāh heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jēr-ō-bō-ām; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jēr-ō-bō-ām, Thus saith the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Īś-rā-ēl,

8 And rent the kingdom away from the house of Dā-vīd, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant Dā-vīd, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes;

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind thy back:

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, and will cut off from Jēr-ō-bō-ām him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Īś-rā-ēl, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Jēr-ō-bō-ām in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Īś-rā-ēl shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jēr-ō-bō-ām shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl in the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām.

14 Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Īś-rā-ēl, who shall cut off the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD shall smite Īś-rā-ēl, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall root up Īś-rā-ēl out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Īś-rā-ēl up because of the sins of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, who did sin, and who made Īś-rā-ēl to sin.

17 ¶ And Jēr-ō-bō-ām's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tīr-zāh: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Īś-rā-ēl mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ā-hī-jāh the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īś-rā-ēl.

20 And the days which Jēr-ō-bō-ām reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nā-dāb his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ And Rē-hō-bō-ām the son of Sōl-ō-mōn reigned in Jûd-āh. Rē-hō-bō-ām was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jē-rû-sā-lēm, the city which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Īś-rā-ēl, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Nā-ā-māh an Ām-mōn-ī-tēss.

22 And Jûd-āh did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them high places, and images, and groves, on every high hill, and under every green tree.

24 And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Īś-rā-ēl.

25 ¶ And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rē-hō-bō-ām, that Shī-shāk king of Ē-ġypt came up against Jē-rû-sā-lēm:

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Sōl-ō-mōn had made.

27 And king Rē-hō-bō-ām made in their stead brasen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard chamber.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Rē-hō-bō-ām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Jûd-āh?

30 And there was war between Rē-hō-bō-ām and Jēr-ō-bō-ām all their days.

31 And Rē-hō-bō-ām slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of Dā-vīd. And his mother's name was Nā-ā-māh an Ām-mōn-ī-tēss. And Ā-bī-jām his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 15

NOW in the eighteenth year of king Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt reigned Ā-bī-jām over Jûd-āh.

2 Three years reigned he in Jē-rû-sā-lēm. And his mother's name was Mā-ā-chāh, the daughter of Ā-bī-shā-lōm.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of Dā-vīd his father.

4 Nevertheless for Dā-vīd's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jē-rû-sā-lēm, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jě-rû-să-lēm:

5 Because Dā-vīd did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Ū-rī-āh the Hīt-tīte.

6 And there was war between Rē-hō-bō-ām and Jěr-ō-bō-ām all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Ā-bī-jām, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Jûd-āh? And there was war between Ā-bī-jām and Jěr-ō-bō-ām.

8 And Ā-bī-jām slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of Dā-vīd: and Ā-să his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ And in the twentieth year of Jěr-ō-bō-ām king of Īs-rā-ēl reigned Ā-să over Jûd-āh.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jě-rû-să-lēm. And his mother's name was Mă-ă-chäh, the daughter of Ā-bī-shă-löm.

11 And Ā-să did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did Dā-vīd his father.

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And also Mă-ă-chäh his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Ā-să destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kī-drön.

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Ā-să's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 ¶ And there was war between Ā-să and Bă-ăsh-ă king of Īs-rā-ēl all their days.

17 And Bă-ăsh-ă king of Īs-rā-ēl went up against Jûd-āh, and built Ră-măh, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Ā-să king of Jûd-āh.

18 Then Ā-să took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Ā-să sent them to Běn-hă-dăd, the son of Tăb-rī-mon, the son of Hě-zī-ön, king of Sŷr-ī-ă, that dwelt at Dă-măs-cūs, saying,

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Bă-ăsh-ă king of Īs-rā-ēl, that he may depart from me.

20 So Běn-hă-dăd hearkened unto king Ā-să, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Īs-rā-ēl, and smote Ī-jön, and Dăn, and Ā-běl-běth-mă-ă-chäh, and all Çīn-ně-röth, with all the land of Năph-tă-li.

21 And it came to pass, when Bă-ăsh-ă heard thereof, that he left off building of Ră-măh, and dwelt in Tŷr-zăh.

22 Then king Ā-să made a proclamation throughout all Jûd-āh; none was exempted: and they took away the stones of Ră-măh, and the timber thereof, wherewith Bă-ăsh-ă had builded; and king Ā-să built with them Gě-bă of Běn-jă-mīn, and Mĭz-păh.

23 The rest of all the acts of Ā-să, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Jûd-āh? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 And Ā-să slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of Dā-vīd his father: and Jě-hōsh-ă-phăt his son reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ And Nă-dăb the son of Jěr-ō-bō-ām began to reign over Īs-rā-ēl in the second year of Ā-să king of Jûd-āh, and reigned over Īs-rā-ēl two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Īs-rā-ēl to sin.

27 ¶ And Bă-ăsh-ă the son of Ā-hī-jăh, of the house of Īs-să-chăr, conspired against him; and Bă-ăsh-ă smote him at Gib-bě-thön, which belonged to the Phīl-īs-tines; for Nă-dăb and all Īs-rā-ēl laid siege to Gib-bě-thön.

28 Even in the third year of Ā-să king of Jûd-āh did Bă-ăsh-ă slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jěr-ō-bō-ām; he left not to Jěr-ō-bō-ām any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ā-hī-jăh the Shī-lō-nīte:

30 Because of the sins of Jěr-ō-bō-ām which he sinned, and which he made Īs-rā-ēl sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked the LORD God of Īs-rā-ēl to anger.

31 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Nă-dăb, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īs-rā-ēl?

32 And there was war between Ā-să and Bă-ăsh-ă king of Īs-rā-ēl all their days.

33 In the third year of Ā-să king of Jûd-āh began Bă-ăsh-ă the son of Ā-hī-jăh to reign over all Īs-rā-ēl in Tŷr-zăh, twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jěr-ō-bō-ām, and in his sin wherewith he made Īs-rā-ēl to sin.

CHAPTER 16

THEN the word of the LORD came to Jě-hū the son of Hă-nă-nī against Bă-ăsh-ă, saying,

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Īs-rā-ēl; and thou hast walked in the way of Jěr-ō-bō-ām, and hast made my people Īs-rā-ēl to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;

3 Behold, I will take away the posterity of Bă-ăsh-ă, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jěr-ō-bō-ām the son of Ně-băt.

4 Him that dieth of Bă-ăsh-ă in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Bă-ăsh-ă, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īs-rā-ēl?

6 So Bă-ăsh-ă slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tŷr-zăh: and Ē-lăh his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet Jě-hū the son of Hă-nă-nī came the word of the LORD against Bă-ăsh-ă, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jěr-ō-bō-ām; and because he killed him.

8 ¶ In the twenty and sixth year of Ā-să king of Jûd-āh began Ē-lăh the son of Bă-ăsh-ă to reign over Īs-rā-ēl in Tŷr-zăh, two years.

9 And his servant Zīm-rī, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tŷr-zăh, drinking himself drunk in the house of Ār-ză steward of his house in Tŷr-zăh.

10 And Zīm-rī went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Ā-să king of Jûd-āh, and reigned in his stead.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Bă-ăsh-ă: he left him not one that pisseth against a wall, neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zīm-rī destroy all the house of Bă-ăsh-ă, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Bă-ăsh-ă by

Jē-hū the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Bā-āsh-ā, and the sins of Ē-lāh his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Īś-rā-ēl to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl to anger with their vanities.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Ē-lāh, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īś-rā-ēl?

15 ¶ In the twenty and seventh year of Ā-sā king of Jûd-āh did Zīm-rī reign seven days in Tīr-zāh. And the people were encamped against Gīb-bē-thōn, which belonged to the Phil-īs-tīnēs.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zīm-rī hath conspired, and hath also slain the king; wherefore all Īś-rā-ēl made Ōm-rī, the captain of the host, king over Īś-rā-ēl that day in the camp.

17 And Ōm-rī went up from Gīb-bē-thōn, and all Īś-rā-ēl with him, and they besieged Tīr-zāh.

18 And it came to pass, when Zīm-rī saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jēr-ō-bō-ām, and in his sin which he did, to make Īś-rā-ēl to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zīm-rī, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īś-rā-ēl?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Īś-rā-ēl divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tīb-nī the son of Gī-nāth, to make him king; and half followed Ōm-rī.

22 But the people that followed Ōm-rī prevailed against the people that followed Tīb-nī the son of Gī-nāth: so Tīb-nī died, and Ōm-rī reigned.

23 ¶ In the thirty and first year of Ā-sā king of Jûd-āh began Ōm-rī to reign over Īś-rā-ēl, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tīr-zāh.

24 And he bought the hill Sā-mâr-ī-ā of Shē-mēr for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shē-mēr, owner of the hill, Sā-mâr-ī-ā.

25 ¶ But Ōm-rī wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt, and in his sin wherewith he made Īś-rā-ēl to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Ōm-rī which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īś-rā-ēl?

28 So Ōm-rī slept with his fathers, and was buried in Sā-mâr-ī-ā: and Ā-hāb his son reigned in his stead.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Ā-sā king of Jûd-āh began Ā-hāb the son of Ōm-rī to reign over Īś-rā-ēl: and Ā-hāb the son of Ōm-rī reigned over Īś-rā-ēl in Sā-mâr-ī-ā twenty and two years.

30 And Ā-hāb the son of Ōm-rī did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt, that he took to wife Jēz-ē-bēl the daughter of Ēth-bā-āl king of the Zī-dō-nī-āns, and went and served Bā-āl, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Bā-āl in the house of Bā-āl, which he had built in Sā-mâr-ī-ā.

33 And Ā-hāb made a grove; and Ā-hāb did more to provoke the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl to anger than all the kings of Īś-rā-ēl that were before him.

34 ¶ In his days did Hī-ēl the Bēth-ēl-īte build Jēr-ī-chō: he laid the foundation thereof in Ā-bī-rām his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Sē-güb, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Jōsh-ū-ā the son of Nūn.

CHAPTER 17

AND Ē-lī-jāh the Tīsh-bīte, who was of the inhabitants of Gīl-ē-ād, said unto Ā-hāb, As the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Chē-rīth, that is before Jōr-dān.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Chē-rīth, that is before Jōr-dān.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zār-ē-phāth, which belongeth to Zī-dōn, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose and went to Zār-ē-phāth. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Ē-lī-jāh said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Ē-lī-jāh: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Ē-lī-jāh.

17 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Ē-lī-jāh, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Ē-lī-jāh; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Ē-lī-jāh took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother:

and Ē-lī-jāh said, See, thy son liveth.

24 ¶ And the woman said to Ē-lī-jāh, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

CHAPTER 18

AND it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Ē-lī-jāh in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ā-hāb; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Ē-lī-jāh went to shew himself unto Ā-hāb. And there was a sore famine in Sā-mār-ī-ā.

3 And Ā-hāb called Ō-bā-dī-āh, which was the governor of his house. (Now Ō-bā-dī-āh feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when Jēz-ē-bēl cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Ō-bā-dī-āh took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

5 And Ā-hāb said unto Ō-bā-dī-āh, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ā-hāb went one way by himself, and Ō-bā-dī-āh went another way by himself.

7 ¶ And as Ō-bā-dī-āh was in the way, behold, Ē-lī-jāh met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Ē-lī-jāh?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Ē-lī-jāh is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ā-hāb, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Ē-lī-jāh is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ā-hāb, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jēz-ē-bēl slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Ē-lī-jāh is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Ē-lī-jāh said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day.

16 So Ō-bā-dī-āh went to meet Ā-hāb, and told him: and Ā-hāb went to meet Ē-lī-jāh.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Ā-hāb saw Ē-lī-jāh, that Ā-hāb said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Īś-rā-ēl?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Īś-rā-ēl; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Bā-ā-līm.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Īś-rā-ēl unto mount Cār-mēl, and the prophets of Bā-āl four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jēz-ē-bēl's table.

20 So Ā-hāb sent unto all the children of Īś-rā-ēl, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Cār-mēl.

21 And Ē-lī-jāh came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Bā-āl, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Ē-lī-jāh unto the people, I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Bā-āl's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

25 And Ē-lī-jāh said unto the prophets of Bā-āl, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Bā-āl from morning even until noon, saying, O Bā-āl, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Ē-lī-jāh mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.

30 And Ē-lī-jāh said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Ē-lī-jāh took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jā-coḇ, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Īś-rā-ēl shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Ē-lī-jāh the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Ā-brā-hām, Ī-sāac, and of Īś-rā-ēl, let it be known this day that thou art God in Īś-rā-ēl, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Ē-lī-jāh said unto them, Take the prophets of Bā-āl; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Ē-lī-jāh brought them down to the brook Kī-shōn, and slew them there.

41 ¶ And Ē-lī-jāh said unto Ā-hāb, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

42 So Ā-hāb went up to eat and to drink. And Ē-lī-jāh went up to the top of Cār-mēl; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,

43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ā'hāb, Prepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ā'hāb rode, and went to Jēz'réel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Ē-lī'jāh; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ā'hāb to the entrance of Jēz'réel.

CHAPTER 19

AND Ā'hāb told Jēz'ē-bēl all that Ē-lī'jāh had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jēz'ē-bēl sent a messenger unto Ē-lī'jāh, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Bēer-shē'bā, which belongeth to Jūd'āh, and left his servant there.

4 ¶ But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty days and forty nights unto Hôr'ēb the mount of God.

9 ¶ And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Ē-lī'jāh?

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Īś-rā-ēl have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Ē-lī'jāh heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Ē-lī'jāh?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Īś-rā-ēl have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Dā-mās'cūs: and when thou comest, anoint Hā-zā'ēl to be king over Sŷr'ī-ā:

16 And Jē-hū the son of Nīm'shī shalt thou anoint to be king over Īś-rā-ēl: and Ē-lī'shā the son of Shā-phāt of Ā'bēl-mē-hō'lāh shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hā-zā'ēl shall Jē-hū slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jē-hū shall Ē-lī'shā slay.

18 Yet I have left me seven thousand in Īś-rā-ēl, all the knees which have not bowed unto Bā'āl, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and found Ē-lī'shā the son of Shā-phāt, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Ē-lī'jāh passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Ē-lī'jāh, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat. Then he arose, and went after Ē-lī'jāh, and ministered unto him.

CHAPTER 20

AND Bēn-hā'dād the king of Sŷr'ī-ā gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Sā-mār'ī-ā, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ā'hāb king of Īś-rā-ēl into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Bēn-hā'dād,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Bēn-hā'dād, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Īś-rā-ēl called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Bēn-hā'dād, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Bēn-hā'dād sent unto him, and said, The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Sā-mār'ī-ā shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Bēn-hā'dād heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said unto his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.

13 ¶ And, behold, there came a prophet unto Ā'hāb king of Īś-rā-ēl, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ā-hāb said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Īś-rā-ēl, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon. But Bēn-hā-dād was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Bēn-hā-dād sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Sā-mār-ī-ā.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And they slew every one his man: and the Sŷr-ī-āns fled; and Īś-rā-ēl pursued them: and Bēn-hā-dād the king of Sŷr-ī-ā escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Sŷr-ī-āns with a great slaughter.

22 ¶ And the prophet came to the king of Īś-rā-ēl, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Sŷr-ī-ā will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Sŷr-ī-ā said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Bēn-hā-dād numbered the Sŷr-ī-āns, and went up to Ā-phēk, to fight against Īś-rā-ēl.

27 And the children of Īś-rā-ēl were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Īś-rā-ēl pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Sŷr-ī-āns filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Īś-rā-ēl, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Sŷr-ī-āns have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Īś-rā-ēl slew of the Sŷr-ī-āns an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Ā-phēk, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Bēn-hā-dād fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Īś-rā-ēl are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Īś-rā-ēl: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Īś-rā-ēl, and said, Thy servant Bēn-hā-dād saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Bēn-hā-dād. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Bēn-hā-dād came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Bēn-hā-dād said unto him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Dā-mās-cūs, as my father made in Sā-mār-ī-ā. Then said Ā-hāb, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35 ¶ And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king; and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Īś-rā-ēl said unto him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.

41 And he hasted, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Īś-rā-ēl discerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Sā-mār-ī-ā.

CHAPTER 21

AND it came to pass after these things, that Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite had a vineyard, which was in Jēz-reel, hard by the palace of Ā-hāb king of Sā-mār-ī-ā.

2 And Ā-hāb spake unto Nā-bōth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Nā-bōth said to Ā-hāb, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ā-hāb came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 ¶ But Jēz-ē-bēl his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jēz-ē-bēl his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Īś-rā-ēl? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ā-hāb's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Nā-bōth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Nā-bōth on high among the people:

10 And set two men, sons of Bē-lī-āl, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jēz-ē-bēl had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Nā-bōth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Bē-lī-āl, and sat before him: and the men of Bē-lī-āl witnessed against him, even against Nā-bōth, in the presence of the people, saying, Nā-bōth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jēz-ē-bēl, saying, Nā-bōth is stoned, and is dead.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jēz-ē-bēl heard that Nā-bōth was stoned, and was dead, that Jēz-ē-bēl said to Ā-hāb, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Nā-bōth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ā-hāb heard that Nā-bōth was dead, that Ā-hāb rose up to go down to the vineyard of Nā-bōth the Jēz-reel-ite, to take possession of it.

17 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Ē-lī-jāh the Tīsh-bīte, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ā-hāb king of Īs-rā-ēl, which is in Sā-mār-ī-ā: behold, he is in the vineyard of Nā-bōth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Nā-bōth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

20 And Ā-hāb said to Ē-lī-jāh, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ā-hāb him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Īs-rā-ēl,

22 And will make thine house like the house of Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-bāt, and like the house of Bā-āsh-ā the son of Ā-hī-jāh, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Īs-rā-ēl to sin.

23 And of Jēz-ē-bēl also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jēz-ē-bēl by the wall of Jēz-reel.

24 Him that dieth of Ā-hāb in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 ¶ But there was none like unto Ā-hāb, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jēz-ē-bēl his wife stirred up.

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Ām-ō-rites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Īs-rā-ēl.

27 And it came to pass, when Ā-hāb heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the LORD came to Ē-lī-jāh the Tīsh-bīte, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ā-hāb humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

CHAPTER 22

AND they continued three years without war between Sūr-ī-ā and Īs-rā-ēl.

2 And it came to pass in the third year, that Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the king of Jūd-āh came down to the king of Īs-rā-ēl.

3 And the king of Īs-rā-ēl said unto his servants, Know ye that Rā-mōth in Gīl-ē-ād is ours, and we be still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Sūr-ī-ā?

4 And he said unto Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād? And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt said to the king of Īs-rā-ēl, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt said unto the king of Īs-rā-ēl, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the king of Īs-rā-ēl gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Īs-rā-ēl said unto Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, There is yet one man, Mī-cai-āh the son of Īm-lāh, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Īs-rā-ēl called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Mī-cai-āh the son of Īm-lāh.

10 And the king of Īs-rā-ēl and Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the king of Jūd-āh sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Sā-mār-ī-ā; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zēd-ē-kī-āh the son of Chē-nā-ā-nāh made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Sūr-ī-āns, until thou have consumed them.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Mī-cai-āh spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Mī-cai-āh said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Mī-cai-āh, shall we go against Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Īs-rā-ēl scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Īs-rā-ēl said unto Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ā-hāb, that he may go up and fall at Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zēd-ē-kī-āh the son of Chē-nā-ā-nāh went near, and smote Mī-cai-āh on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Mī-cai-āh said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl said, Take Mī-cai-āh, and carry him back unto Ā-mōn the governor of the city, and to Jō-āsh the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Mī-cai-āh said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Harken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Īś-rā-ēl and Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the king of Jûd-āh went up to Rā-mōth-gīl-ē-ād.

30 And the king of Īś-rā-ēl said unto Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Īś-rā-ēl disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Sŷr-ī-ā commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Īś-rā-ēl.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, that they said, Surely it is the king of Īś-rā-ēl. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Īś-rā-ēl, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Īś-rā-ēl between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Sŷr-ī-āns, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king died, and was brought to Să-mâr-ī-ā; and they buried the king in Să-mâr-ī-ā.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Să-mâr-ī-ā; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ā-hăb, and all that he did, and the ivory house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Īś-rā-ēl?

40 So Ā-hăb slept with his fathers; and Ā-hă-zī-āh his son reigned in his stead.

41 ¶ And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt the son of Ā-să began to reign over Jûd-āh in the fourth year of Ā-hăb king of Īś-rā-ēl.

42 Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jē-rû-să-lēm. And his mother's name was Ā-zû-băh the daughter of Shīl-hī.

43 And he walked in all the ways of Ā-să his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt made peace with the king of Īś-rā-ēl.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Jûd-āh?

46 And the remnant of the sodomites, which remained in the days of his father Ā-să, he took out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Ē-dom: a deputy was king.

48 Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt made ships of Thăr-shīsh to go to Ō-phīr for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ē-zī-ōn-gē-bēr.

49 Then said Ā-hă-zī-āh the son of Ā-hăb unto Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt would not.

50 ¶ And Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of Dă-vīd his father: and Jē-hôr-ām his son reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ā-hă-zī-āh the son of Ā-hăb began to reign over Īś-rā-ēl in Să-mâr-ī-ā the seventeenth year of Jē-hōsh-ā-phāt king of Jûd-āh, and reigned two years over Īś-rā-ēl.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jēr-ō-bō-ām the son of Nē-băt, who made Īś-rā-ēl to sin:

53 For he served Bă-āl, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Īś-rā-ēl, according to all that his father had done.
