

THE FIRST BOOK OF MŌ-ŠĚŠ, CALLED ĞĚN-Ě-SĪS

CHAPTER 1

IN the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 ¶ And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER 2

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Ē-ḏēn; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Ē'dĕn to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pī'sōn: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Hāv'ī-lāh, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gī'hōn: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ē-thī-ō-pī-ā.

14 And the name of the third river is Hīd'dĕ-kĕl: that is it which goeth toward the east of Ās-sŷr-ī-ā. And the fourth river is Eu-phrā-tĕš.

15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Ē'dĕn to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Ād'ām to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Ād'ām called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Ād'ām gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Ād'ām there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Ād'ām, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

23 And Ād'ām said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3

NOW the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Ād'ām and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Ād'ām, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

17 And unto Ād'ām he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Ād'ām called his wife's name Ēve; because she was the mother of all living.

21 Unto Ād'ām also and to his wife did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Ē'dĕn, to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Ē'dĕn Chĕr-ū-bĭms, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAPTER 4

AND Ād-ām knew Ēve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother Ā-bēl. And Ā-bēl was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Ā-bēl, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Ā-bēl and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Ā-bēl his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Ā-bēl his brother, and slew him.

9 ¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Ā-bēl thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand;

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nōd, on the east of Ē-dēn.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Ē-nōch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Ē-nōch.

18 And unto Ē-nōch was born Ī-rād: and Ī-rād begat Mě-hū-jā-ēl: and Mě-hū-jā-ēl begat Mě-thū-sā-ēl: and Mě-thū-sā-ēl begat Lā-měch.

19 ¶ And Lā-měch took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Ā-dāh, and the name of the other Zīl-lāh.

20 And Ā-dāh bare Jā-bāl: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jū-bāl: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zīl-lāh, she also bare Tū-bāl-cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tū-bāl-cain was Nā-ā-māh.

23 And Lā-měch said unto his wives, Ā-dāh and Zīl-lāh, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lā-měch, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lā-měch seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Ād-ām knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Sēth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Ā-bēl, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Sēth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Ē-nōs: then began men to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 5

THIS is the book of the generations of Ād-ām. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Ād-ām, in the day when they were created.

3 ¶ And Ād-ām lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Sēth:

4 And the days of Ād-ām after he had begotten Sēth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Ād-ām lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

6 And Sēth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Ē-nōs:

7 And Sēth lived after he begat Ē-nōs eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Sēth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶ And Ē-nōs lived ninety years, and begat Cā-ī-nān:

10 And Ē-nōs lived after he begat Cā-ī-nān eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Ē-nōs were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 ¶ And Cā-ī-nān lived seventy years, and begat Mā-hāl-ā-leel:

13 And Cā-ī-nān lived after he begat Mā-hāl-ā-leel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cā-ī-nān were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 ¶ And Mā-hāl-ā-leel lived sixty and five years, and begat Jār-ēd:

16 And Mā-hāl-ā-leel lived after he begat Jār-ēd eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the days of Mā-hāl-ā-leel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 ¶ And Jār-ēd lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Ē-nōch:

19 And Jār-ēd lived after he begat Ē-nōch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the days of Jār-ēd were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.

21 ¶ And Ē-nōch lived sixty and five years, and begat

Mě-thū'sě-lāh:

22 And Ē'nōch walked with God after he begat Mě-thū'sě-lāh three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

23 And all the days of Ē'nōch were three hundred sixty and five years:

24 And Ē'nōch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

25 And Mě-thū'sě-lāh lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat Lā'měch:

26 And Mě-thū'sě-lāh lived after he begat Lā'měch seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters:

27 And all the days of Mě-thū'sě-lāh were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died.

28 ¶ And Lā'měch lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son:

29 And he called his name Nō'āh, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD hath cursed.

30 And Lā'měch lived after he begat Nō'āh five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters:

31 And all the days of Lā'měch were seven hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.

32 And Nō'āh was five hundred years old: and Nō'āh begat Shēm, Hām, and Jā-phēth.

CHAPTER 6

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Nō'āh found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Nō'āh: Nō'āh was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Nō'āh walked with God.

10 And Nō'āh begat three sons, Shēm, Hām, and Jā-phēth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Nō'āh, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gō-phēr wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Nō'āh; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER 7

AND the LORD said unto Nō'āh, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Nō'āh did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Nō'āh was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Nō'āh went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Nō'āh into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Nō'āh.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Nō'āh's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Nō-āh, and Shēm, and Hām, and Jā-phēth, the sons of Nō-āh, and Nō-āh's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Nō-āh into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Nō-āh only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER 8

AND God remembered Nō-āh, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged;

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ār-ā-rāt.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Nō-āh opened the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf pluckt off: so Nō-āh knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Nō-āh removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Nō-āh, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Nō-āh went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Nō-āh builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

CHAPTER 9

AND God blessed Nō-āh and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶ And God spake unto Nō-āh, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Nō-āh, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Nō-āh, that went forth of the ark, were Shēm, and Hām, and Jā-phēth: and Hām is the father of Cā-nā-ān.

19 These are the three sons of Nō-āh: and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Nō-āh began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Hām, the father of Cā-nā-ān, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shēm and Jā-phēth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Nō-āh awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, Cursed be Cā-nā-ān; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shēm; and Cā-nā-ān shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Jā-phēth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shēm; and Cā-nā-ān shall be his servant.

28 ¶ And Nō-āh lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Nō-āh were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

CHAPTER 10

Now these are the generations of the sons of Nō-āh, Shēm, Hām, and Jā-phēth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Jā-phēth; Gō-mēr, and Mā-gōg, and Mā-dāi, and Jā-vān, and Tū-bāl, and Mē-shēch, and Tī-rās.

3 And the sons of Gō-mēr; Āsh-kē-nāz, and Rī-phāth, and Tō-gār-māh.

4 And the sons of Jā-vān; Ē-lī-shāh, and Tār-shīsh, Kīt-tīm, and Dō-dā-nīm.

5 By these were the isles of the GĚn-tiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ And the sons of Hām; Cūsh, and Mīz-rā-īm, and Phūt, and Cā-nā-ān.

7 And the sons of Cūsh; Sē-bā, and Hāv-ī-lāh, and Sāb-tāh, and Rā-ā-māh, and Sāb-tē-chā: and the sons of Rā-ā-māh; Shē-bā, and Dē-dān.

8 And Cūsh begat Nīm-rōd: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nīm-rōd the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Bā-bēl, and Ēr-ēch, and Āc-cād, and Cāl-nēh, in the land of Shī-nār.

11 Out of that land went forth Āssh-ūr, and builded Nīn-ē-vēh, and the city Rē-hō-bōth, and Cā-lāh, 12 And Rē-sēn between Nīn-ē-vēh and Cā-lāh: the same is a great city.

13 And Mīz-rā-īm begat Lū-dīm, and Ān-ā-mīm, and Lē-hā-bīm, and Nāph-tū-hīm, 14 And Pāth-rū-sīm, and Cās-lū-hīm, (out of whom came Phīl-īs-tīm,) and Cāph-tō-rīm.

15 ¶ And Cā-nā-ān begat Šī-dōn his firstborn, and Hēth,

16 And the Jēb-ū-sīte, and the Ām-ō-rīte, and the Gīr-gā-sīte,

17 And the Hī-vīte, and the Ār-kīte, and the Sī-nīte,

18 And the Ār-vā-dīte, and the Zēm-ā-rīte, and the Hā-māth-īte: and afterward were the families of the Cā-nā-ān-ītes spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Cā-nā-ān-ītes was from Šī-dōn, as thou comest to Gē-rār, unto Gā-zā; as thou goest, unto Sōd-ōm, and Gō-mōr-rāh, and Ād-māh, and Zē-bō-īm, even unto Lā-shā.

20 These are the sons of Hām, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 ¶ Unto Shēm also, the father of all the children of Ē-bēr, the brother of Jā-phēth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shēm; Ē-lām, and Āssh-ūr, and Ār-phāx-ād, and Lūd, and Ār-ām.

23 And the children of Ār-ām; Ūz, and Hūl, and Gē-thēr, and Māsh.

24 And Ār-phāx-ād begat Sā-lāh; and Sā-lāh begat Ē-bēr.
 25 And unto Ē-bēr were born two sons: the name of one was Pē-lēg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Jōk-tān.
 26 And Jōk-tān begat Āl-mō-dād, and Shē-lēph, and Hā-zār-mā-vēth, and Jē-rāh,
 27 And Hā-dōr-ām, and Ū-zāl, and Dīk-lāh,
 28 And Ō-bāl, and Ā-bīm-ā-ēl, and Shē-bā,
 29 And Ō-phīr, and Hāv-ī-lāh, and Jō-bāb: all these were the sons of Jōk-tān.
 30 And their dwelling was from Mē-shā, as thou goest unto Sē-phār a mount of the east.
 31 These are the sons of Shēm, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.
 32 These are the families of the sons of Nō-āh, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER 11

AND the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shī-nār; and they dwelt there.
 3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.
 4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.
 5 And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.
 6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.
 7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.
 8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.
 9 Therefore is the name of it called Bā-bēl; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.
 10 ¶ These are the generations of Shēm: Shēm was an hundred years old, and begat Ār-phāx-ād two years after the flood:
 11 And Shēm lived after he begat Ār-phāx-ād five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
 12 And Ār-phāx-ād lived five and thirty years, and begat Sā-lāh:
 13 And Ār-phāx-ād lived after he begat Sā-lāh four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.
 14 And Sā-lāh lived thirty years, and begat Ē-bēr:
 15 And Sā-lāh lived after he begat Ē-bēr four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.
 16 And Ē-bēr lived four and thirty years, and begat Pē-lēg:
 17 And Ē-bēr lived after he begat Pē-lēg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

 18 And Pē-lēg lived thirty years, and begat Rē-ū:
 19 And Pē-lēg lived after he begat Rē-ū two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
 20 And Rē-ū lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē-rüg:
 21 And Rē-ū lived after he begat Sē-rüg two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
 22 And Sē-rüg lived thirty years, and begat Nā-hôr:
 23 And Sē-rüg lived after he begat Nā-hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
 24 And Nā-hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē-rāh:
 25 And Nā-hôr lived after he begat Tē-rāh an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
 26 And Tē-rāh lived seventy years, and begat Ā-brām, Nā-hôr, and Hā-rān.
 27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē-rāh: Tē-rāh begat Ā-brām, Nā-hôr, and Hā-rān; and Hā-rān begat Löt.
 28 And Hā-rān died before his father Tē-rāh in the land of his nativity, in Ūr of the Chāl-dēēs.
 29 And Ā-brām and Nā-hôr took them wives: the name of Ā-brām's wife was Sār-ā-ī; and the name of Nā-hôr's wife, Mīl-cāh, the daughter of Hā-rān, the father of Mīl-cāh, and the father of Īs-cāh.
 30 But Sār-ā-ī was barren; she had no child.
 31 And Tē-rāh took Ā-brām his son, and Löt the son of Hā-rān his son's son, and Sār-ā-ī his daughter in law, his son Ā-brām's wife; and they went forth with them from Ūr of the Chāl-dēēs, to go into the land of Cā-nā-ān; and they came unto Hā-rān, and dwelt there.
 32 And the days of Tē-rāh were two hundred and five years: and Tē-rāh died in Hā-rān.

CHAPTER 12

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā-brām, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
 3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
 4 So Ā-brām departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Löt went with him: and Ā-brām was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā-rān.
 5 And Ā-brām took Sār-ā-ī his wife, and Löt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā-rān; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā-nā-ān; and into the land of Cā-nā-ān they came.
 6 ¶ And Ā-brām passed through the land unto the place of Sī-chēm, unto the plain of Mō-rēh. And the Cā-nā-ān-īte was then in the land.
 7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā-brām, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
 8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bēth-ēl, and pitched his tent, having Bēth-ēl on the west, and Hā-ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Ā-brām journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā-brām went down into Ē-gŷpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē-gŷpt, that he said unto Sār-ā-ī his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gŷp-tiāns shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Ā-brām was come into Ē-gŷpt, the Ē-gŷp-tiāns beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Phâr-āoh saw her, and commended her before Phâr-āoh: and the woman was taken into Phâr-āoh's house.

16 And he entreated Ā-brām well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Phâr-āoh and his house with great plagues because of Sār-ā-ī Ā-brām's wife.

18 And Phâr-āoh called Ā-brām, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Phâr-āoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 13

AND Ā-brām went up out of Ē-gŷpt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Löt with him, into the south.

2 And Ā-brām was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Bēth-ēl, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bēth-ēl and Hā-ī;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Ā-brām called on the name of the LORD.

5 ¶ And Löt also, which went with Ā-brām, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Ā-brām's cattle and the herdmen of Löt's cattle: and the Cā-nā-ān-īte and the Pē-riz-zīte dwelled then in the land.

8 And Ā-brām said unto Löt, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Löt lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jôr-dān, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Söd-om and Gō-mör-rāh, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Ē-gŷpt, as thou comest unto Zō-ār.

11 Then Löt chose him all the plain of Jôr-dān; and Löt journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Ā-brām dwelled in the land of Cā-nā-ān, and Löt dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Söd-om.

13 But the men of Söd-om were wicked and sinners before the LORD exceedingly.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Ā-brām, after that Löt was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Ā-brām removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mām-rē, which is in Hē-brōn, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came to pass in the days of Ām-rā-phēl king of Shī-nār, Ār-ī-ōch king of Ēl-lā-sār, Chēd-ōr-lā-ōmer king of Ē-lām, and Tī-dāl king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bē-rā king of Söd-om, and with Bīr-shā king of Gō-mör-rāh, Shī-nāb king of Ād-māh, and Shēm-ē-bēr king of Zē-boi-īm, and the king of Bē-lā, which is Zō-ār.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Sīd-dīm, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chēd-ōr-lā-ōmer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chēd-ōr-lā-ōmer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rēph-ā-īms in Āsh-tē-rōth Kār-nā-īm, and the Zū-zīms in Hām, and the Ē-mīms in Shā-vēh Kīr-ī-ā-thā-īm,

6 And the Hōr-ītes in their mount Sē-īr, unto Ēl-pār-ān, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to Ēn-mīsh-pāt, which is Kā-dēsh, and smote all the country of the Ā-māl-ēk-ītes, and also the Ām-ō-rītes, that dwelt in Hāz-ē-zon-tā-mār.

8 And there went out the king of Söd-om, and the king of Gō-mör-rāh, and the king of Ād-māh, and the king of Zē-boi-īm, and the king of Bē-lā (the same is Zō-ār); and they joined battle with them in the vale of Sīd-dīm;

9 With Chēd-ōr-lā-ōmer the king of Ē-lām, and with Tī-dāl king of nations, and Ām-rā-phēl king of Shī-nār, and Ār-ī-ōch king of Ēl-lā-sār; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Sīd-dīm was full of slimepits; and the kings of Söd-om and Gō-mör-rāh fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Söd-om and Gō-mōr-rāh, and all their victuals, and went their way.

 12 And they took Lōt, Ā-brām's brother's son, who dwelt in Sōd'ōm, and his goods, and departed.
 13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told Ā-brām the Hē-brēw; for he dwelt in the plain of Mām-rē the Ām-ō-rīte, brother of Ĕsh-cōl, and brother of Ā'nēr; and these were confederate with Ā-brām.
 14 And when Ā-brām heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dān.
 15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hō-bāh, which is on the left hand of Dā-mās-cūs.
 16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lōt, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.
 17 ¶ And the king of Sōd'ōm went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chēd-ōr-lā-ōmer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shā-vēh, which is the king's dale.
 18 And Mēl-chīz-ēd-ēk king of Sā-lēm brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.
 19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Ā-brām of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth:
 20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.
 21 And the king of Sōd'ōm said unto Ā-brām, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.
 22 And Ā-brām said to the king of Sōd'ōm, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,
 23 That I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Ā-brām rich:
 24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me, Ā'nēr, Ĕsh-cōl, and Mām-rē; let them take their portion.

CHAPTER 15

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Ā-brām in a vision, saying, Fear not, Ā-brām: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.
 2 And Ā-brām said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this Ĕl-ī-ē-zēr of Dā-mās-cūs?
 3 And Ā-brām said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.
 4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.
 5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be.
 6 And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.
 7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ūr of the Chāl-deēs, to give thee this land to inherit it.

 8 And he said, Lord GOD, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?
 9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.
 10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.
 11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, Ā-brām drove them away.
 12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Ā-brām; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.
 13 And he said unto Ā-brām, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;
 14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.
 15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.
 16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the Ām-ō-rītes is not yet full.
 17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.
 18 In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Ā-brām, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Ĕ-gypt unto the great river, the river Ĕu-phrā-tēs:
 19 The Kē-nītes, and the Kē-nīz-zītes, and the Kād-mō-nītes,
 20 And the Hīt-tītes, and the Pē-rīz-zītes, and the Rēph-ā-īms,
 21 And the Ām-ō-rītes, and the Cā-nā-ān-ītes, and the Gīr-gā-shītes, and the Jēb-ū-sītes.

CHAPTER 16

Now Sār-ā-ī Ā-brām's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Ĕ-gypt-tiān, whose name was Hāg-ār.
 2 And Sār-ā-ī said unto Ā-brām, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Ā-brām hearkened to the voice of Sār-ā-ī.
 3 And Sār-ā-ī Ā-brām's wife took Hāg-ār her maid the Ĕ-gypt-tiān, after Ā-brām had dwelt ten years in the land of Cā-nā-ān, and gave her to her husband Ā-brām to be his wife.
 4 ¶ And he went in unto Hāg-ār, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.
 5 And Sār-ā-ī said unto Ā-brām, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee.
 6 But Ā-brām said unto Sār-ā-ī, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sār-ā-ī dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 ¶ And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shūr.

8 And he said, Hāg'ār, Sār'ā-ī's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sār'ā-ī.

9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Īsh'mā-ēl; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12 And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?

14 Wherefore the well was called Bēer-lā'hāi-roī; behold, it is between Kā'dēsh and Bē'rēd.

15 ¶ And Hāg'ār bare Ā-brām a son: and Ā-brām called his son's name, which Hāg'ār bare, Īsh'mā-ēl.

16 And Ā-brām was fourscore and six years old, when Hāg'ār bare Īsh'mā-ēl to Ā-brām.

CHAPTER 17

AND when Ā-brām was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Ā-brām, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Ā-brām fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Ā-brām, but thy name shall be Ā-brā-hām; for a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Cā'nā-ān, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

9 ¶ And God said unto Ā-brā-hām, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶ And God said unto Ā-brā-hām, As for Sār'ā-ī thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sār'ā-ī, but Sār'āh shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Ā-brā-hām fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sār'āh, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Ā-brā-hām said unto God, O that Īsh'mā-ēl might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sār'āh thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Ī-sāac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Īsh'mā-ēl, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Ī-sāac, which Sār'āh shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Ā-brā-hām.

23 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām took Īsh'mā-ēl his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Ā-brā-hām's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Ā-brā-hām was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Īsh'mā-ēl his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Ā-brā-hām circumcised, and Īsh'mā-ēl his son.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER 18

AND the LORD appeared unto him in the plains of Mām-rē: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Ā-bră-hăm hastened into the tent unto Sâr-ăh, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Ā-bră-hăm ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶ And they said unto him, Where is Sâr-ăh thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sâr-ăh thy wife shall have a son. And Sâr-ăh heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Ā-bră-hăm and Sâr-ăh were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sâr-ăh after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sâr-ăh laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Ā-bră-hăm, Wherefore did Sâr-ăh laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sâr-ăh shall have a son.

15 Then Sâr-ăh denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.

16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Söd-om: and Ā-bră-hăm went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the LORD said, Shall I hide from Ā-bră-hăm that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Ā-bră-hăm shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Ā-bră-hăm that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the LORD said, Because the cry of Söd-om and Gō-mōr-răh is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Söd-om: but Ā-bră-hăm stood yet before the LORD.

23 ¶ And Ā-bră-hăm drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city:

wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said, If I find in Söd-om fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Ā-bră-hăm answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Ā-bră-hăm: and Ā-bră-hăm returned unto his place.

CHAPTER 19

AND there came two angels to Söd-om at even; and Löt sat in the gate of Söd-om: and Löt seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Söd-om, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Löt, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Löt went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lōt, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lōt into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lōt, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lōt went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lōt, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lōt said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zō'ār.

23 ¶ The sun was risen upon the earth when Lōt entered into Zō'ār.

24 Then the LORD rained upon Sōd'ōm and upon Gō-mōr'rāh brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sōd'ōm and Gō-mōr'rāh, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Ā-brā-hām, and sent Lōt out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lōt dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lōt went up out of Zō'ār, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zō'ār: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also: and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lōt with child by their father.

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Mō'āb: the same is the father of the Mō'āb-ites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Běn-ām'mī: the same is the father of the children of Ām'mōn unto this day.

CHAPTER 20

AND Ā-brā-hām journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kā-dēsh and Shūr, and sojourned in Gē-rār.

2 And Ā-brā-hām said of Sār'āh his wife, She is my sister: and Ā-bīm'ē-lēch king of Gē-rār sent, and took Sār'āh.

3 But God came to Ā-bīm'ē-lēch in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is a man's wife.

4 But Ā-bīm'ē-lēch had not come near her: and he said, Lord, wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Ā-bīm'ē-lēch rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Ā-bīm-ě-lěch called Ā-bră-hăm, and said unto him, What hast thōu done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Ā-bīm-ě-lěch said unto Ā-bră-hăm, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Ā-bră-hăm said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Ā-bīm-ě-lěch took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Ā-bră-hăm, and restored him Sār-ăh his wife.

15 And Ā-bīm-ě-lěch said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sār-ăh he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reprov'd.

17 ¶ So Ā-bră-hăm prayed unto God: and God healed Ā-bīm-ě-lěch, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Ā-bīm-ě-lěch, because of Sār-ăh Ā-bră-hăm's wife.

CHAPTER 21

AND the LORD visited Sār-ăh as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sār-ăh as he had spoken.

2 For Sār-ăh conceived, and bare Ā-bră-hăm a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Ā-bră-hăm called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sār-ăh bare to him, Ī-sāac.

4 And Ā-bră-hăm circumcised his son Ī-sāac being eight days old, as God had commanded him.

5 And Ā-bră-hăm was an hundred years old, when his son Ī-sāac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sār-ăh said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said unto Ā-bră-hăm, that Sār-ăh should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Ā-bră-hăm made a great feast the same day that Ī-sāac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sār-ăh saw the son of Hăg-ăr the Ē-gŷp-tiăn, which she had born unto Ā-bră-hăm, mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Ā-bră-hăm, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Ī-sāac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Ā-bră-hăm's sight because of his son.

12 ¶ And God said unto Ā-bră-hăm, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sār-ăh hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in Ī-sāac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Ā-bră-hăm rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hăg-ăr, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away; and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-shē-bă.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Hăg-ăr out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hăg-ăr? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Păr-ăn: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Ē-gŷpt.

22 ¶ And it came to pass at that time, that Ā-bīm-ě-lěch and Phī-chōl the chief captain of his host spake unto Ā-bră-hăm, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest:

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourn'd.

24 And Ā-bră-hăm said, I will swear.

25 And Ā-bră-hăm reprov'd Ā-bīm-ě-lěch because of a well of water, which Ā-bīm-ě-lěch's servants had violently taken away.

26 And Ā-bīm-ě-lěch said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Ā-bră-hăm took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Ā-bīm-ě-lěch; and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Ā-bră-hăm set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Ā-bīm-ě-lěch said unto Ā-bră-hăm, What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place Bēer-shē-bă; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Bēer-shē-bă: then Ā-bīm-ě-lěch rose up, and Phī-chōl the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Phīl'īs-tīnēs.

33 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām planted a grove in Bēer-shē-bā, and called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.

34 And Ā-brā-hām sojourned in the Phīl'īs-tīnēs' land many days.

CHAPTER 22

AND it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt Ā-brā-hām, and said unto him, Ā-brā-hām: and he said, Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Ī-sāac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Mōr-ī-āh; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Ī-sāac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Ā-brā-hām lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Ā-brā-hām said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Ā-brā-hām took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon Ī-sāac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Ī-sāac spake unto Ā-brā-hām his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Ā-brā-hām said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Ā-brā-hām built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Ī-sāac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Ā-brā-hām stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Ā-brā-hām, Ā-brā-hām: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

13 And Ā-brā-hām lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Ā-brā-hām went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Ā-brā-hām called the name of that place Jē-hō-vāh-jī-rēh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Ā-brā-hām out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 So Ā-brā-hām returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-shē-bā; and Ā-brā-hām dwelt at Beer-shē-bā.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Ā-brā-hām, saying, Behold, Mīl-cāh, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nā-hôr;

21 Hūz his firstborn, and Būz his brother, and Kē-mū-ēl the father of Ār-ām, 22 And Chēs-ēd, and Hā-zō, and Pīl-dāsh, and Jīd-lāph, and Bē-thū-ēl.

23 And Bē-thū-ēl begat Rē-bēk-āh: these eight Mīl-cāh did bear to Nā-hôr, Ā-brā-hām's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Rēu-māh, she bare also Tē-bāh, and Gā-hām, and Thā-hāsh, and Mā-ā-chāh.

CHAPTER 23

AND Sār-āh was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sār-āh.

2 And Sār-āh died in Kīr-jāth-ār-bā; the same is Hē-brōn in the land of Cā-nā-ān: and Ā-brā-hām came to mourn for Sār-āh, and to weep for her.

3 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Hēth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Hēth answered Ā-brā-hām, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Ā-brā-hām stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Hēth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ē-phrōn the son of Zō-hār,

9 That he may give me the cave of Māch-pē-lāh, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

10 And Ē-phrōn dwelt among the children of Hēth: and Ē-phrōn the Hīt-tīte answered Ā-brā-hām in the audience of the children of Hēth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Ā-brā-hām bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ē-phrōn in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ē-phrōn answered Ā-brā-hām, saying unto him,
15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shē-kēls of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Ā-brā-hām hearkened unto Ē-phrōn; and Ā-brā-hām weighed to Ē-phrōn the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Hēth, four hundred shē-kēls of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 ¶ And the field of Ē-phrōn, which was in Māch-pē-lāh, which was before Mām-rē, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure

18 Unto Ā-brā-hām for a possession in the presence of the children of Hēth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Ā-brā-hām buried Sār-āh his wife in the cave of the field of Māch-pē-lāh before Mām-rē: the same is Hē-brōn in the land of Cā-nā-ān.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure unto Ā-brā-hām for a possession of a buryingplace by the sons of Hēth.

CHAPTER 24

AND Ā-brā-hām was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Ā-brā-hām in all things.

2 And Ā-brā-hām said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Cā-nā-ān-ites, among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Ī-śāac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Ā-brā-hām said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Ā-brā-hām his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mēs-ō-pō-tā-mī-ā, unto the city of Nā-hôr.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O LORD God of my master Ā-brā-hām, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Ā-brā-hām.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Ī-śāac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rē-bēk-āh came out, who was born to Bē-thū-ēl, son of Mīl-cāh, the wife of Nā-hôr, Ā-brā-hām's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hastened, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shē-kēl weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shē-kēls weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bē-thū-ēl the son of Mīl-cāh, which she bare unto Nā-hôr.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of my master Ā-brā-hām, who hath not left destitute my master of his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rē-bēk-āh had a brother, and his name was Lā-bān: and Lā-bān ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rē-bēk-āh his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Ā-brā-hām's servant.

35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sār-āh my master's wife bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Cā-nā-ān-ītes, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God of my master Ā-brā-hām, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rě-běk-āh came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bě-thū-ěl, Nā-hôr's son, whom Mīl-cāh bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Ā-brā-hām, which had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Lā-bān and Bě-thū-ěl answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rě-běk-āh is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Ā-brā-hām's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rě-běk-āh: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rě-běk-āh, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rě-běk-āh their sister, and her nurse, and Ā-brā-hām's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rě-běk-āh, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rě-běk-āh arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rě-běk-āh, and went his way.

62 And Ī-sāac came from the way of the well Lā-hāi-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Ī-sāac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rě-běk-āh lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Ī-sāac, she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a vail, and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Ī-sāac all things that he had done.

67 And Ī-sāac brought her into his mother Sār-āh's tent, and took Rě-běk-āh, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Ī-sāac was comforted after his mother's death.

CHAPTER 25

THEN again Ā-brā-hām took a wife, and her name was Kě-tū-rāh.

2 And she bare him Zīm-rān, and Jök-shān, and Mē-dān, and Mīd-ī-ān, and Īsh-bāk, and Shū-āh.

3 And Jök-shān begat Shē-bā, and Dē-dān. And the sons of Dē-dān were Āssh-ū-rīm, and Lě-tū-shīm, and Lě-ūm-mīm.

4 And the sons of Mĭd-ĭ-ān; Ē-phāh, and Ē-phĕr, and Hā-nō-ch, and Ā-bī-dā, and Ĕl-dā-āh. All these were the children of Kĕ-tū-rāh.

5 ¶ And Ā-brā-hām gave all that he had unto Ī-sāac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Ā-brā-hām had, Ā-brā-hām gave gifts, and sent them away from Ī-sāac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Ā-brā-hām's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Ā-brā-hām gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Ī-sāac and Īsh-mā-ĕl buried him in the cave of Māch-pē-lāh, in the field of Ē-phrōn the son of Zō-hār the Hĭt-tĭte, which is before Mām-rĕ;

10 The field which Ā-brā-hām purchased of the sons of Hĕth: there was Ā-brā-hām buried, and Sār-āh his wife.

11 ¶ And it came to pass after the death of Ā-brā-hām, that God blessed his son Ī-sāac; and Ī-sāac dwelt by the well Lā-hāi-roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the generations of Īsh-mā-ĕl, Ā-brā-hām's son, whom Hāg-ār the Ē-gŷp-tĭān, Sār-āh's handmaid, bare unto Ā-brā-hām:

13 And these are the names of the sons of Īsh-mā-ĕl, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Īsh-mā-ĕl, Nĕ-bā-jōth; and Kĕ-dār, and Ād-beel, and Mĭb-sām,

14 And Mĭsh-mā, and Du-māh, and Mās-sā,

15 Hā-dār, and Tĕ-mā, Jĕ-tūr, Nā-phĭsh, and Kĕ-dĕ-māh:

16 These are the sons of Īsh-mā-ĕl, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Īsh-mā-ĕl, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from Hāv-ĭ-lāh unto Shūr, that is before Ē-gŷpt, as thou goest toward Ās-sŷr-ĭ-ā: and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ And these are the generations of Ī-sāac, Ā-brā-hām's son: Ā-brā-hām begat Ī-sāac:

20 And Ī-sāac was forty years old when he took Rĕ-bĕk-āh to wife, the daughter of Bĕ-thū-ĕl the Sŷr-ĭ-ān of Pā-dān-ār-ām, the sister to Lā-bān the Sŷr-ĭ-ān.

21 And Ī-sāac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rĕ-bĕk-āh his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Ē-sāu.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Ē-sāu's heel; and his name was called Jā-cōb: and Ī-sāac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Ē-sāu was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jā-cōb was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Ī-sāac loved Ē-sāu, because he did eat of his venison: but Rĕ-bĕk-āh loved Jā-cōb.

29 ¶ And Jā-cōb sod pottage: and Ē-sāu came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Ē-sāu said to Jā-cōb, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Ē-dōm.

31 And Jā-cōb said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

32 And Ē-sāu said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?

33 And Jā-cōb said, Swear to me this day; and he swore unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jā-cōb.

34 Then Jā-cōb gave Ē-sāu bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Ē-sāu despised his birthright.

CHAPTER 26

AND there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Ā-brā-hām. And Ī-sāac went unto Ā-bĭm-ĕ-lĕch king of the Phĭl-ĭs-tĭnĕs unto Gĕ-rār.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Ē-gŷpt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of:

3 Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Ā-brā-hām thy father;

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;

5 Because that Ā-brā-hām obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 ¶ And Ī-sāac dwelt in Gĕ-rār:

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rĕ-bĕk-āh; because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Ā-bĭm-ĕ-lĕch king of the Phĭl-ĭs-tĭnĕs looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Ī-sāac was sporting with Rĕ-bĕk-āh his wife.

9 And Ā-bĭm-ĕ-lĕch called Ī-sāac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Ī-sāac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Ā-bĭm-ĕ-lĕch said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Ā-bĭm-ĕ-lĕch charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Ī-sāac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him.

 13 And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great:
 14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Phīl'īs-tīnēs envied him.
 15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged in the days of Ā-brā-hām his father, the Phīl'īs-tīnēs had stopped them, and filled them with earth.
 16 And Ā-bīm'ě-lěch said unto Ī'sāac, Go from us; for thou art much mightier than we.
 17 ¶ And Ī'sāac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gē-rār, and dwelt there.
 18 And Ī'sāac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of Ā-brā-hām his father; for the Phīl'īs-tīnēs had stopped them after the death of Ā-brā-hām: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.
 19 And Ī'sāac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of springing water.
 20 And the herdmen of Gē-rār did strive with Ī'sāac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well Ē'sěk; because they strove with him.
 21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it Sīt-nāh.
 22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it Rě-hō-bōth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.
 23 And he went up from thence to Bēer-shē-bā.
 24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Ā-brā-hām thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Ā-brā-hām's sake.
 25 And he builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Ī'sāac's servants digged a well.
 26 ¶ Then Ā-bīm'ě-lěch went to him from Gē-rār, and Ā-hūz-zāth one of his friends, and Phī-chōl the chief captain of his army.
 27 And Ī'sāac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and have sent me away from you?
 28 And they said, We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;
 29 That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the LORD.
 30 And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.
 31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Ī'sāac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.
 32 And it came to pass the same day, that Ī'sāac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.
 33 And he called it Shē-bāh: therefore the name of the city is Bēer-shē-bā unto this day.

34 ¶ And Ē'sāu was forty years old when he took to wife Jū-dīth the daughter of Bēer'ī the Hīt-tīte, and Bāsh'ě-māth the daughter of Ē-lōn the Hīt-tīte:
 35 Which were a grief of mind unto Ī'sāac and to Rě-běk'āh.

CHAPTER 27

AND it came to pass, that when Ī'sāac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Ē'sāu his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.
 2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:
 3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take me some venison;
 4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless thee before I die.
 5 And Rě-běk'āh heard when Ī'sāac spake to Ē'sāu his son. And Ē'sāu went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.
 6 ¶ And Rě-běk'āh spake unto Jā-cōb her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Ē'sāu thy brother, saying,
 7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.
 8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.
 9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:
 10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.
 11 And Jā-cōb said to Rě-běk'āh his mother, Behold, Ē'sāu my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:
 12 My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.
 13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.
 14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat, such as his father loved.
 15 And Rě-běk'āh took goodly raiment of her eldest son Ē'sāu, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jā-cōb her younger son:
 16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:
 17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jā-cōb.
 18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?
 19 And Jā-cōb said unto his father, I am Ē'sāu thy first-born; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.
 20 And Ī'sāac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it to me.

21 And Ī-sāac said unto Jā-cōb, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Ē-sau or not.

22 And Jā-cōb went near unto Ī-sāac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jā-cōb's voice, but the hands are the hands of Ē-sau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Ē-sau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Ē-sau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Ī-sāac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Ī-sāac had made an end of blessing Jā-cōb, and Jā-cōb was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Ī-sāac his father, that Ē-sau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Ī-sāac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Ē-sau.

33 And Ī-sāac trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Ē-sau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Jā-cōb? for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Ī-sāac answered and said unto Ē-sau, Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with corn and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Ē-sau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Ē-sau lifted up his voice, and wept.

39 And Ī-sāac his father answered and said unto him,

Behold, thy dwelling shall be the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Ē-sau hated Jā-cōb because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Ē-sau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then will I slay my brother Jā-cōb.

42 And these words of Ē-sau her elder son were told to Rě-běk-āh: and she sent and called Jā-cōb her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Ē-sau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Lā-bān my brother to Hā-rān;

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rě-běk-āh said to Ī-sāac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Hěth: if Jā-cōb take a wife of the daughters of Hěth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

CHAPTER 28

AND Ī-sāac called Jā-cōb, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Cā-nā-ān.

2 Arise, go to Pā-dān-ār-ām, to the house of Bě-thū-ēl thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Lā-bān thy mother's brother.

3 And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people;

4 And give thee the blessing of Ā-brā-hām, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Ā-brā-hām.

5 And Ī-sāac sent away Jā-cōb: and he went to Pā-dān-ār-ām unto Lā-bān, son of Bě-thū-ēl the Sŷr-ī-ān, the brother of Rě-běk-āh, Jā-cōb's and Ē-sau's mother.

6 ¶ When Ē-sau saw that Ī-sāac had blessed Jā-cōb, and sent him away to Pā-dān-ār-ām, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Cā-nā-ān;

7 And that Jā-cōb obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Pā-dān-ār-ām;

8 And Ē-sau seeing that the daughters of Cā-nā-ān pleased not Ī-sāac his father;

9 Then went Ē-sau unto Īsh-mā-ēl, and took unto the wives which he had Mā-hā-lāth the daughter of Īsh-mā-ēl Ā-brā-hām's son, the sister of Ně-bā-jōth, to be his wife.

10 ¶ And Jā-cōb went out from Beer-shē-bā, and went toward Hā-rān.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Ā-brā-hām thy father, and the God of Ī-śāac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 ¶ And Jā-cōb awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jā-cōb rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Bēth-ēl: but the name of that city was called Lūz at the first.

20 And Jā-cōb vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the LORD be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

CHAPTER 29

THEN Jā-cōb went on his journey, and came into the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jā-cōb said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Hā-rān are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Lā-bān the son of Nā-hōr? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Rā-chēl his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, Rāchel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jā-cōb saw Rā-chēl the daughter of Lā-bān his mother's brother, and the sheep of Lā-bān his mother's brother, that Jā-cōb went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Lā-bān his mother's brother.

11 And Jā-cōb kissed Rā-chēl, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jā-cōb told Rā-chēl that he was her father's brother, and that he was Rē-bēk-āh's son: and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Lā-bān heard the tidings of Jā-cōb his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Lā-bān all these things.

14 And Lā-bān said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Lā-bān said unto Jā-cōb, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Lā-bān had two daughters: the name of the elder was Lē-āh, and the name of the younger was Rā-chēl.

17 Lē-āh was tender eyed; but Rā-chēl was beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jā-cōb loved Rā-chēl; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rā-chēl thy younger daughter.

19 And Lā-bān said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jā-cōb served seven years for Rā-chēl; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶ And Jā-cōb said unto Lā-bān, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Lā-bān gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Lē-āh his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Lā-bān gave unto his daughter Lē-āh Zīl-pāh his maid for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Lē-āh: and he said to Lā-bān, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rā-chēl? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Lā-bān said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jā-cōb did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rā-chēl his daughter to wife also.

29 And Lā-bān gave to Rā-chēl his daughter Bīl-hāh his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rā-chēl, and he loved also Rā-chēl more than Lē-āh, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Lē-āh was hated, he opened her womb: but Rā-chēl was barren.

32 And Lē-āh conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name Reū-bēn: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Sīm-ě-qn.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Lē-vī.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Jūd-āh; and left bearing.

CHAPTER 30

AND when Rā-chēl saw that she bare Jā-cōb no children, Rā-chēl envied her sister; and said unto Jā-cōb, Give me children, or else I die.

2 And Jā-cōb's anger was kindled against Rā-chēl: and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bīl-häh, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bīl-häh her handmaid to wife: and Jā-cōb went in unto her.

5 And Bīl-häh conceived, and bare Jā-cōb a son.

6 And Rā-chēl said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dän.

7 And Bīl-häh Rā-chēl's maid conceived again, and bare Jā-cōb a second son.

8 And Rā-chēl said, With great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Nāph-tā-lī.

9 When Lē-āh saw that she had left bearing, she took Zīl-päh her maid, and gave her Jā-cōb to wife.

10 And Zīl-päh Lē-āh's maid bare Jā-cōb a son.

11 And Lē-āh said, A troop cometh: and she called his name Gäd.

12 And Zīl-päh Lē-āh's maid bare Jā-cōb a second son.

13 And Lē-āh said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed; and she called his name Āsh-ěr.

14 ¶ And Reū-bēn went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Lē-āh. Then Rā-chēl said to Lē-āh, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rā-chēl said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jā-cōb came out of the field in the evening, and Lē-āh went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Lē-āh, and she conceived, and bare Jā-cōb the fifth son.

18 And Lē-āh said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Īs-sä-chär.

19 And Lē-āh conceived again, and bare Jā-cōb the sixth son.

20 And Lē-āh said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zě-bū-lün.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dī-näh.

22 ¶ And God remembered Rā-chēl, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away my reproach:

24 And she called his name Jō-sěph; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son.

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rā-chēl had born Jō-sěph, that Jā-cōb said unto Lā-bän, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Lā-bän said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jā-cōb said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Lā-bän said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jā-cōb: and Jā-cōb fed the rest of Lā-bän's flocks.

37 ¶ And Jā-cōb took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jā'cōb did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Lā'bān; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Lā'bān's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jā'cōb laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Lā'bān's, and the stronger Jā'cōb's.

43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

CHAPTER 31

AND he heard the words of Lā'bān's sons, saying, Jā'cōb hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.

2 And Jā'cōb beheld the countenance of Lā'bān, and, behold, it was not toward him as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jā'cōb, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

4 And Jā'cōb sent and called Rā'chēl and Lē'āh to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me.

6 And ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jā'cōb: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen all that Lā'bān doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Bēth'ēl, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rā'chēl and Lē'āh answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 ¶ Then Jā'cōb rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Pā'dān-ār'ām, for to go to Ī'sāac his father in the land of Cā'nā-ān.

19 And Lā'bān went to shear his sheep: and Rā'chēl had stolen the images that were her father's.

20 And Jā'cōb stole away unawares to Lā'bān the Sŷr'ī-ān, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and set his face toward the mount Gīl'ē-ād.

22 And it was told Lā'bān on the third day that Jā'cōb was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gīl'ē-ād.

24 And God came to Lā'bān the Sŷr'ī-ān in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jā'cōb either good or bad.

25 ¶ Then Lā'bān overtook Jā'cōb. Now Jā'cōb had pitched his tent in the mount: and Lā'bān with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gīl'ē-ād.

26 And Lā'bān said to Jā'cōb, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jā'cōb either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen my gods?

31 And Jā'cōb answered and said to Lā'bān, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jā'cōb knew not that Rā'chēl had stolen them.

33 And Lā'bān went into Jā'cōb's tent, and into Lē'āh's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Lē'āh's tent, and entered into Rā'chēl's tent.

34 Now Rā'chēl had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And Lā'bān searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jā'cōb was wroth, and chode with Lā'bān: and Jā'cōb answered and said to Lā'bān, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me? 37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages ten times. 42 Except the God of my father, the God of Ā'brā'hām, and the fear of Ī'sāac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and rebuked thee yesternight.

43 ¶ And Lā'bān answered and said unto Jā'cōb, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Jā'cōb took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jā'cōb said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Lā'bān called it Jē'gār-sā-hā-dū'thā: but Jā'cōb called it Gā'leed.

48 And Lā'bān said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Gā'leed;

49 And Mīz'pāh; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Lā'bān said to Jā'cōb, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have cast betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Ā'brā'hām, and the God of Nā'hôr, the God of their father, judge betwixt us. And Jā'cōb swore by the fear of his father Ī'sāac.

54 Then Jā'cōb offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Lā'bān rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them: and Lā'bān departed, and returned unto his place.

CHAPTER 32

AND Jā'cōb went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 And when Jā'cōb saw them, he said, This is God's host: and he called the name of that place Mā'hā-nā'īm.

3 And Jā'cōb sent messengers before him to Ē'sāu his brother unto the land of Sē'ir, the country of Ē'dōm.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Ē'sāu; Thy servant Jā'cōb saith thus, I have sojourned with Lā'bān, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jā'cōb, saying, We came to thy brother Ē'sāu, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jā'cōb was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Ē'sāu come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 ¶ And Jā'cōb said, O God of my father Ā'brā'hām, and God of my father Ī'sāac, the LORD which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jōr'dān; and now I am become two bands.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Ē'sāu: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother with the children.

12 And thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Ē'sāu his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Ē'sāu my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jā'cōb's; it is a present sent unto my lord Ē'sāu: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Ē'sāu, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jā'cōb is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jāb-bōk.

23 And he took them, and sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 ¶ And Jā-cōb was left alone; and there wrestled a man with him until the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jā-cōb's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jā-cōb.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jā-cōb, but Īś-rā-ēl: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jā-cōb asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jā-cōb called the name of the place Pēn-ī-ēl: for I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Pēn-ū-ēl the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Īś-rā-ēl eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jā-cōb's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAPTER 33

AND Jā-cōb lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, E-sāu came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Lē-āh, and unto Rā-chēl, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Lē-āh and her children after, and Rā-chēl and Jō-šēph hindermost.

3 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And E-sāu ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Lē-āh also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Jō-šēph near and Rā-chēl, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And E-sāu said, I have enough, my brother; keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jā-cōb said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough. And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Sē-īr.

15 And E-sāu said, Let me now leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So E-sāu returned that day on his way unto Sē-īr.

17 And Jā-cōb journeyed to Sūc-cōth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Sūc-cōth.

18 ¶ And Jā-cōb came to Shā-lēm, a city of Shē-chēm, which is in the land of Cā-nā-ān, when he came from Pā-dān-ār-ām; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Hā-môr, Shē-chēm's father, for an hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it Ēl-ēl-ō-hē-Īś-rā-ēl.

CHAPTER 34

AND Dī-nāh the daughter of Lē-āh, which she bare unto Jā-cōb, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shē-chēm the son of Hā-môr the Hī-vīte, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and defiled her.

3 And his soul clave unto Dī-nāh the daughter of Jā-cōb, and he loved the damsel, and spake kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shē-chēm spake unto his father Hā-môr, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jā-cōb heard that he had defiled Dī-nāh his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jā-cōb held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hā-môr the father of Shē-chēm went out unto Jā-cōb to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jā-cōb came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Īś-rā-ēl in lying with Jā-cōb's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hā-môr communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shē-chēm longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shē-chēm said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jā-cōb answered Shē-chēm and Hā-mōr his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dī-nāh their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hā-mōr, and Shē-chēm Hā-mōr's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jā-cōb's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hā-mōr and Shē-chēm his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hā-mōr and unto Shē-chēm his son hearkened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jā-cōb, Sīm-ě-ōn and Lē-vī, Dī-nāh's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hā-mōr and Shē-chēm his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dī-nāh out of Shē-chēm's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jā-cōb came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jā-cōb said to Sīm-ě-ōn and Lē-vī, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Cā-nā-ān-ites and the Pě-rīz-zītes: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

CHAPTER 35

AND God said unto Jā-cōb, Arise, go up to Bēth-ěl, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Ē-sau thy brother.

2 Then Jā-cōb said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Bēth-ěl; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jā-cōb all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings which were in their ears; and Jā-cōb hid them under the oak which was by Shē-chēm.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jā-cōb.

6 ¶ So Jā-cōb came to Lüz, which is in the land of Cā-nā-ān, that is, Bēth-ěl, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and called the place Ēl-bēth-ěl: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Dēb-ō-rāh Rē-bēk-āh's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Bēth-ěl under an oak: and the name of it was called Āl-lōn-bā-chūth.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jā-cōb again, when he came out of Pā-dān-ār-ām, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jā-cōb: thy name shall not be called any more Jā-cōb, but Īs-rā-ěl shall be thy name: and he called his name Īs-rā-ěl.

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land which I gave Ā-brā-hām and Ī-sāac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God went up from him in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jā-cōb set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon.

15 And Jā-cōb called the name of the place where God spake with him, Bēth-ěl.

16 ¶ And they journeyed from Bēth-ěl; and there was but a little way to come to Ē-phrāth: and Rā-chēl travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass, as her soul was in departing, (for she died) that she called his name Bĕn-ō'nī: but his father called him Bĕn-jā-mĭn.

19 And Rā-chĕl died, and was buried in the way to Ē-phrāth, which is Bĕth-lĕ-hĕm.

20 And Jā-cōb set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rā-chĕl's grave unto this day.

21 ¶ And Īs-rā-ĕl journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Ē-dār.

22 And it came to pass, when Īs-rā-ĕl dwelt in that land, that Rĕu-bĕn went and lay with Bĭl-hāh his father's concubine: and Īs-rā-ĕl heard it. Now the sons of Jā-cōb were twelve:

23 The sons of Lĕ-āh; Rĕu-bĕn, Jā-cōb's firstborn, and Sĭm-ĕ-ōn, and Lĕ-vī, and Jūd-āh, and Īs-sā-chār, and Zĕ-bū-lūn:

24 The sons of Rā-chĕl; Jō-sĕph, and Bĕn-jā-mĭn:

25 And the sons of Bĭl-hāh, Rā-chĕl's handmaid; Dān, and Nāph-tā-lī:

26 And the sons of Zĭl-pāh, Lĕ-āh's handmaid; Gād, and Āsh-ĕr: these are the sons of Jā-cōb, which were born to him in Pā-dān-ār-ām.

27 ¶ And Jā-cōb came unto Ī-sāac his father unto Mām-rĕ, unto the city of Ār-bāh, which is Hĕ-brōn, where Ā-brā-hām and Ī-sāac sojourned.

28 And the days of Ī-sāac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Ī-sāac gave up the ghost, and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Ē-sau and Jā-cōb buried him.

CHAPTER 36

NOW these are the generations of Ē-sau, who is Ē-dōm.

2 Ē-sau took his wives of the daughters of Cā-nā-ān; Ā-dāh the daughter of Ē-lōn the Hĭt-tĭte, and Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh the daughter of Ā-nāh the daughter of Zĭb-ĕ-ōn the Hĭ-vĭte;

3 And Bāsh-ĕ-māth Īsh-mā-ĕl's daughter, sister of Nĕ-bā-jōth.

4 And Ā-dāh bare to Ē-sau Ē-lĭ-phāz; and Bāsh-ĕ-māth bare Rĕu-ĕl;

5 And Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh bare Jĕ-ūsh, and Jā-ā-lām, and Kōr-āh: these are the sons of Ē-sau, which were born unto him in the land of Cā-nā-ān.

6 And Ē-sau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Cā-nā-ān; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jā-cōb.

7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear them because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Ē-sau in mount Sĕ-ĭr: Ē-sau is Ē-dōm.

9 ¶ And these are the generations of Ē-sau the father of the Ē-dōm-ĭtes in mount Sĕ-ĭr:

10 These are the names of Ē-sau's sons; Ē-lĭ-phāz the son of Ā-dāh the wife of Ē-sau, Rĕu-ĕl the son of Bāsh-ĕ-māth the wife of Ē-sau.

11 And the sons of Ē-lĭ-phāz were Tĕ-mān, Ō-mār, Zĕ-phō, and Gā-tām, and Kĕ-nāz.

12 And Tĭm-nā was concubine to Ē-lĭ-phāz Ē-sau's son; and she bare to Ē-lĭ-phāz Ām-ā-lĕk: these were the sons of Ā-dāh Ē-sau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of Rĕu-ĕl; Nā-hāth, and Zĕ-rāh, Shām-māh, and Mĭz-zāh: these were the sons of Bāsh-ĕ-māth Ē-sau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh, the daughter of Ā-nāh the daughter of Zĭb-ĕ-ōn, Ē-sau's wife: and she bare to Ē-sau Jĕ-ūsh, and Jā-ā-lām, and Kōr-āh.

15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Ē-sau: the sons of Ē-lĭ-phāz the firstborn son of Ē-sau; duke Tĕ-mān, duke Ō-mār, duke Zĕ-phō, duke Kĕ-nāz, 16 Duke Kōr-āh, duke Gā-tām, and duke Ām-ā-lĕk: these are the dukes that came of Ē-lĭ-phāz in the land of Ē-dōm; these were the sons of Ā-dāh.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of Rĕu-ĕl Ē-sau's son; duke Nā-hāth, duke Zĕ-rāh, duke Shām-māh, duke Mĭz-zāh: these are the dukes that came of Rĕu-ĕl in the land of Ē-dōm; these are the sons of Bāsh-ĕ-māth Ē-sau's wife.

18 ¶ And these are the sons of Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh Ē-sau's wife; duke Jĕ-ūsh, duke Jā-ā-lām, duke Kōr-āh: these were the dukes that came of Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh the daughter of Ā-nāh, Ē-sau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Ē-sau, who is Ē-dōm, and these are their dukes.

20 ¶ These are the sons of Sĕ-ĭr the Hōr-ĭte, who inhabited the land; Lō-tān, and Shō-bāl, and Zĭb-ĕ-ōn, and Ā-nāh, 21 And Dĭ-shōn, and Ē-zĕr, and Dĭ-shān: these are the dukes of the Hōr-ĭtes, the children of Sĕ-ĭr in the land of Ē-dōm.

22 And the children of Lō-tān were Hōr-ĭ and Hĕ-mām; and Lō-tān's sister was Tĭm-nā.

23 And the children of Shō-bāl were these; Āl-vān, and Mān-ā-hāth, and Ē-bāl, Shĕ-phō, and Ō-nām.

24 And these are the children of Zĭb-ĕ-ōn; both Ā-jāh, and Ā-nāh: this was that Ā-nāh that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zĭb-ĕ-ōn his father.

25 And the children of Ā-nāh were these; Dĭ-shōn, and Ā-hōl-ĭ-bā-māh the daughter of Ā-nāh.

26 And these are the children of Dĭ-shōn; Hĕm-dān, and Ĕsh-bān, and Īth-rān, and Chĕ-rān.

27 The children of Ē-zĕr are these; Bĭl-hān, and Zā-ā-vān, and Ā-kān.

28 The children of Dĭ-shān are these; Ūz, and Ār-ān.

29 These are the dukes that came of the Hōr-ĭtes; duke Lō-tān, duke Shō-bāl, duke Zĭb-ĕ-ōn, duke Ā-nāh, 30 Duke Dĭ-shōn, duke Ē-zĕr, duke Dĭ-shān: these are the dukes that came of Hōr-ĭ, among their dukes in the land of Sĕ-ĭr.

31 ¶ And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Ē-dōm, before there reigned any king over the children of Īs-rā-ĕl.

32 And Bĕ-lā the son of Bĕ-ōr reigned in Ē-dōm: and the name of his city was Dĭn-hā-bāh.

33 And Bĕ-lā died, and Jō-bāb the son of Zĕ-rāh of Bōz-rāh reigned in his stead.

34 And Jō-bāb died, and Hū-shām of the land of Tĕ-mān-ĭ reigned in his stead.

35 And Hū-shām died, and Hā-dād the son of Bē-dād, who smote Mīd-ī-ān in the field of Mō-āb, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Ā-vīth.

36 And Hā-dād died, and Sām-lāh of Mās-rē-kāh reigned in his stead.

37 And Sām-lāh died, and Sāul of Rē-hō-bōth by the river reigned in his stead.

38 And Sāul died, and Bā-āl-hā-nān the son of Āch-bōr reigned in his stead.

39 And Bā-āl-hā-nān the son of Āch-bōr died, and Hā-dār reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pā-ū; and his wife's name was Mē-hēt-ā-bēl, the daughter of Mā-trēd, the daughter of Mē-zā-hāb.

40 And these are the names of the dukes that came of Ē-sāu, according to their families, after their places, by their names; duke Tīm-nāh, duke Āl-vāh, duke Jē-thēth,

41 Duke Ā-hōl-ī-bā-māh, duke Ē-lāh, duke Pī-nōn,

42 Duke Kē-nāz, duke Tē-mān, duke Mīb-zār,

43 Duke Māg-dī-ēl, duke Ī-rām: these be the dukes of Ē-dōm, according to their habitations in the land of their possession: he is Ē-sāu the father of the Ē-dōm-ītes.

CHAPTER 37

AND Jā-cōb dwelt in the land wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Cā-nā-ān.

2 These are the generations of Jā-cōb. Jō-šēph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bīl-hāh, and with the sons of Zīl-pāh, his father's wives: and Jō-šēph brought unto his father their evil report.

3 Now Īś-rā-ēl loved Jō-šēph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Jō-šēph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father observed the saying.

12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shē-chēm.

13 And Īś-rā-ēl said unto Jō-šēph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shē-chēm? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of Hē-brōn, and he came to Shē-chēm.

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dō-thān. And Jō-šēph went after his brethren, and found them in Dō-thān.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And Reū-bēn heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reū-bēn said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jō-šēph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Jō-šēph out of his coat, his coat of many colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of Īsh-mēe-lītes came from Gīl-ē-ād with their camels bearing spicery and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Ē-gypt.

26 And Jūd-āh said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Īsh-mēe-lītes, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then there passed by Mīd-ī-ā-nītes merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Jō-šēph out of the pit, and sold Jō-šēph to the Īsh-mēe-lītes for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Jō-šēph into Ē-gypt.

29 ¶ And Reū-bēn returned unto the pit; and, behold, Jō-šēph was not in the pit; and he rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took Jō-šēph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Jō'sēph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jā'qob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

36 And the Mīd'ī-ā-nītes sold him into Ē'gÿpt unto Pōt'ī-phār, an officer of Phār'āoh's, and captain of the guard.

CHAPTER 38

AND it came to pass at that time, that Jûd'āh went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Ā-dûl'lām-īte, whose name was Hī'rāh.

2 And Jûd'āh saw there a daughter of a certain Cā'nā-ān-īte, whose name was Shû'āh; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Ĕr.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Ō'nān.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shē'lāh: and he was at Chē'zīb, when she bare him.

6 And Jûd'āh took a wife for Ĕr his firstborn, whose name was Tā'mār.

7 And Ĕr, Jûd'āh's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

8 And Jûd'āh said unto Ō'nān, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Ō'nān knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Jûd'āh to Tā'mār his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shē'lāh my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tā'mār went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 ¶ And in process of time the daughter of Shû'āh Jûd'āh's wife died; and Jûd'āh was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Tīm'nāth, he and his friend Hī'rāh the Ā-dûl'lām-īte.

13 And it was told Tā'mār, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to Tīm'nāth to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Tīm'nāth; for she saw that Shē'lāh was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Jûd'āh saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Jûd'āh sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Ā-dûl'lām-īte, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Jûd'āh, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Jûd'āh said, Let her take it to her, lest we be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Jûd'āh, saying, Tā'mār thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Jûd'āh said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Jûd'āh acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shē'lāh my son. And he knew her again no more.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Phār'ēz.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zār'āh.

CHAPTER 39

AND Jō'sēph was brought down to Ē'gÿpt; and Pōt'ī-phār, an officer of Phār'āoh, captain of the guard, an Ē'gÿp-tīān, bought him of the hands of the Īsh'mee-lītes, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was with Jō'sēph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Ē'gÿp-tīān.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Jō'sēph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Ē-gŷp-tĭān's house for Jō-šēph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Jō-šēph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Jō-šēph was a goodly person, and well favoured.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes upon Jō-šēph; and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Jō-šēph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Jō-šēph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hē-brēw unto us to mock us; he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying, The Hē-brēw servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Jō-šēph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 ¶ But the LORD was with Jō-šēph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Jō-šēph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

CHAPTER 40

AND it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of Ē-gŷpt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Ē-gŷpt.

2 And Phâr-āōh was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Jō-šēph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Jō-šēph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Ē-gŷpt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Jō-šēph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

7 And he asked Phâr-āōh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Jō-šēph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Jō-šēph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Phâr-āōh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Phâr-āōh's cup, and I gave the cup into Phâr-āōh's hand.

12 And Jō-šēph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Phâr-āōh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Phâr-āōh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Phâr-āōh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hē-brēw's: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Jō-šēph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Phâr-āōh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Jō-šēph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 Yet within three days shall Phâr-āōh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Phâr-āōh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Phâr'âoh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Jō'sěph had interpreted to them.

CHAPTER 41

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Phâr'âoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.

2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Phâr'âoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Phâr'âoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Ē'gÿpt, and all the wise men thereof: and Phâr'âoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Phâr'âoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Phâr'âoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Phâr'âoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hē-brēw, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then Phâr'âoh sent and called Jō'sěph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Phâr'âoh.

15 And Phâr'âoh said unto Jō'sěph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Jō'sěph answered Phâr'âoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Phâr'âoh an answer of peace.

17 And Phâr'âoh said unto Jō'sěph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Ē'gÿpt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 ¶ And Jō'sěph said unto Phâr'âoh, The dream of Phâr'âoh is one: God hath shewed Phâr'âoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Phâr'âoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Phâr'âoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Ē'gÿpt:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Ē'gÿpt; and the famine shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Phâr'âoh twice; it is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Phâr'âoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Ē'gÿpt.

34 Let Phâr'âoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Ē'gÿpt in the seven plenteous years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Phâr'âoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Ē'gÿpt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Phâr'âoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Phâr'âoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

39 And Phâr'âoh said unto Jō'sěph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Phâr'âoh said unto Jō'sěph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

42 And Phâr-āōh took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Jō-šēph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

44 And Phâr-āōh said unto Jō-šēph, I am Phâr-āōh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

45 And Phâr-āōh called Jō-šēph's name Zāph-nāth-pā-ā-nē-āh; and he gave him to wife Ās-ē-nāth the daughter of Pōt-ī-phēr-āh priest of Ōn. And Jō-šēph went out over all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

46 ¶ And Jō-šēph was thirty years old when he stood before Phâr-āōh king of Ē-gŷpt. And Jō-šēph went out from the presence of Phâr-āōh, and went throughout all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Ē-gŷpt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.

49 And Jō-šēph gathered corn as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Jō-šēph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Ās-ē-nāth the daughter of Pōt-ī-phēr-āh priest of Ōn bare unto him.

51 And Jō-šēph called the name of the firstborn Mā-nās-sēh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he Ē-phrā-īm: For God hath caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 ¶ And the seven years of plenteousness, that was in the land of Ē-gŷpt, were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Jō-šēph had said: and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Ē-gŷpt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Ē-gŷpt was famished, the people cried to Phâr-āōh for bread: and Phâr-āōh said unto all the Ē-gŷp-tiāns, Go unto Jō-šēph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: And Jō-šēph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the Ē-gŷp-tiāns; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Ē-gŷpt.

57 And all countries came into Ē-gŷpt to Jō-šēph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER 42

Now when Jā-cōb saw that there was corn in Ē-gŷpt, Jā-cōb said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Ē-gŷpt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die.

3 ¶ And Jō-šēph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Ē-gŷpt.

4 But Bēn-jā-mīn, Jō-šēph's brother, Jā-cōb sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Īs-rā-ēl came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Cā-nā-ān.

6 And Jō-šēph was the governor over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Jō-šēph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Jō-šēph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Cā-nā-ān to buy food.

8 And Jō-šēph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Jō-šēph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Cā-nā-ān; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not.

14 And Jō-šēph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: By the life of Phâr-āōh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Phâr-āōh surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Jō-šēph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reū-bēn answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

23 And they knew not that Jō-šēph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Sīm-ē-ōn, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Jō-šēph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jā-cōb their father unto the land of Cā-nā-ān, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Cā-nā-ān.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jā-cōb their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved of my children: Jō-šēph is not, and Sīm-ē-ōn is not, and ye will take Bēn-jā-mīn away: all these things are against me.

37 And Reu-bēn spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

CHAPTER 43

AND the famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Ġ-ġypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Jūd-āh spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Ġ-rā-ēl said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the tenor of these words: could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Jūd-āh said unto Ġ-rā-ēl his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever:

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Ġ-rā-ēl said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight:

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Bēn-jā-mīn. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 ¶ And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Bēn-jā-mīn; and rose up, and went down to Ġ-ġypt, and stood before Jō-šēph.

16 And when Jō-šēph saw Bēn-jā-mīn with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Jō-šēph bade; and the man brought the men into Jō-šēph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Jō-šēph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Jō-šēph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Sīm-ē-ōn out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Jō-šēph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the present against Jō-šēph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Jō-šěph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Běn-jă-mĭn, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Jō-šěph made haste; for his bowels did yearn upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Ē-ġŷp-tĭāns, which did eat with him, by themselves: because the Ē-ġŷp-tĭāns might not eat bread with the Hĕ-brĕwĕs; for that is an abomination unto the Ē-ġŷp-tĭāns.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Běn-jă-mĭn's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and were merry with him.

CHAPTER 44

AND he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Jō-šěph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Jō-šěph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Că-nă-ăn: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Běn-jă-mĭn's sack.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Jûd-ăh and his brethren came to Jō-šěph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Jō-šěph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly divine?

16 And Jûd-ăh said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Jûd-ăh came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Phâr-ăoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil that shall come on my father.

CHAPTER 45

THEN Jō-šēph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Jō-šēph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Ē-gŷp-tīans and the house of Phâr-āōh heard.

3 And Jō-šēph said unto his brethren, I am Jō-šēph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were troubled at his presence.

4 And Jō-šēph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Jō-šēph your brother, whom ye sold into Ē-gŷpt.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life.

6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be earing nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Phâr-āōh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Ē-gŷpt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Jō-šēph, God hath made me lord of all Ē-gŷpt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Gō-shēn, and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Bēn-jā-mīn, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Ē-gŷpt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste and bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Bēn-jā-mīn's neck, and wept; and Bēn-jā-mīn wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame thereof was heard in Phâr-āōh's house, saying, Jō-šēph's brethren are come: and it pleased Phâr-āōh well, and his servants.

17 And Phâr-āōh said unto Jō-šēph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Cā-nā-ān;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Ē-gŷpt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Ē-gŷpt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff; for the good of all the land of Ē-gŷpt is yours.

21 And the children of Īś-rā-ēl did so: and Jō-šēph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Phâr-āōh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Bēn-jā-mīn he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses laden with the good things of Ē-gŷpt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Ē-gŷpt, and came into the land of Cā-nā-ān unto Jā-cōb their father, 26 And told him, saying, Jō-šēph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Ē-gŷpt. And Jā-cōb's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Jō-šēph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Jō-šēph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jā-cōb their father revived:

28 And Īś-rā-ēl said, It is enough; Jō-šēph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER 46

AND Īś-rā-ēl took his journey with all that he had, and came to Bēer-shē-bā, and offered sacrifices unto the God of his father Ī-śāac.

2 And God spake unto Īś-rā-ēl in the visions of the night, and said, Jā-cōb, Jā-cōb. And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Ē-gŷpt; for I will there make of thee a great nation:

4 I will go down with thee into Ē-gŷpt; and I will also surely bring thee up again: and Jō-šēph shall put his hand upon thine eyes.

5 And Jā-cōb rose up from Bēer-shē-bā: and the sons of Īś-rā-ēl carried Jā-cōb their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Phâr-āōh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Cā-nā-ān, and came into Ē-gŷpt, Jā-cōb, and all his seed with him:

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Ē-gŷpt.

8 ¶ And these are the names of the children of Īś-rā-ēl, which came into Ē-gŷpt, Jā-cōb and his sons: Rēu-bēn, Jā-cōb's firstborn.

9 And the sons of Rēu-bēn; Hā-nō-ch, and Phāl-lū, and Hēz-rōn, and Cār-mī.

10 ¶ And the sons of Sīm-ē-on; Jē-mū-ēl, and Jā-mīn, and Ō-hād, and Jā-chīn, and Zō-hār, and Shā-ūl the son of a Cā-nā-ān-ī-tīsh woman.

11 ¶ And the sons of Lē-vī; Gēr-shōn, Kō-hāth, and Mē-rār-ī.

12 ¶ And the sons of Jūd-āh; Ĕr, and Ō-nān, and Shē-lāh, and Phār-ēz, and Zē-rāh: but Ĕr and Ō-nān died in the land of Cā-nā-ān. And the sons of Phār-ēz were Hēz-rōn and Hām-ūl.

13 ¶ And the sons of Īs-sā-chār; Tō-lā, and Phū-vāh, and Jōb, and Shīm-rōn.

14 ¶ And the sons of Zē-bū-lūn; Sē-rēd, and Ē-lōn, and Jāh-leel.

15 These be the sons of Lē-āh, which she bare unto Jā-cōb in Pā-dān-ār-ām, with his daughter Dī-nāh: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 ¶ And the sons of Gād; Zīph-ī-on, and Hāg-gī, Shū-nī, and Ĕz-bōn, Ē-rī, and Ā-rō-dī, and Ā-rē-lī.

17 ¶ And the sons of Āsh-ēr; Jīm-nāh, and Īsh-ū-āh, and Īs-ū-ī, and Bē-rī-āh, and Sē-rāh their sister: and the sons of Bē-rī-āh; Hē-bēr, and Māl-chī-ēl.

18 These are the sons of Zīl-pāh, whom Lā-bān gave to Lē-āh his daughter, and these she bare unto Jā-cōb, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rā-chēl Jā-cōb's wife; Jō-šēph, and Bēn-jā-mīn.

20 ¶ And unto Jō-šēph in the land of Ē-gypt were born Mā-nās-sēh and Ē-phrā-īm, which Ās-ē-nāth the daughter of Pōt-ī-phēr-āh priest of Ōn bare unto him.

21 ¶ And the sons of Bēn-jā-mīn were Bē-lāh, and Bē-chēr, and Āsh-bēl, Gē-rā, and Nā-ā-mān, Ē-hī, and Rōsh, Mūp-pīm, and Hūp-pīm, and Ārd.

22 These are the sons of Rā-chēl, which were born to Jā-cōb: all the souls were fourteen.

23 ¶ And the sons of Dān; Hū-shīm.

24 ¶ And the sons of Nāph-tā-lī; Jāh-zēel, and Gū-nī, and Jēz-ēr, and Shīl-lēm.

25 These are the sons of Bīl-hāh, which Lā-bān gave unto Rā-chēl his daughter, and she bare these unto Jā-cōb: all the souls were seven.

26 All the souls that came with Jā-cōb into Ē-gypt, which came out of his loins, besides Jā-cōb's sons' wives, all the souls were threescore and six;

27 And the sons of Jō-šēph, which were born him in Ē-gypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Jā-cōb, which came into Ē-gypt, were threescore and ten.

28 ¶ And he sent Jūd-āh before him unto Jō-šēph, to direct his face unto Gō-shēn; and they came into the land of Gō-shēn.

29 And Jō-šēph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Īs-rā-ēl his father, to Gō-shēn, and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Īs-rā-ēl said unto Jō-šēph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Jō-šēph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and shew Phār-āōh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Cā-nā-ān, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Phār-āōh shall call you, and shall say, What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Gō-shēn; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Ē-gypt-īāns.

CHAPTER 47

THEN Jō-šēph came and told Phār-āōh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Cā-nā-ān; and, behold, they are in the land of Gō-shēn.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Phār-āōh.

3 And Phār-āōh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Phār-āōh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Phār-āōh, For to sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Cā-nā-ān: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Gō-shēn.

5 And Phār-āōh spake unto Jō-šēph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Ē-gypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; in the land of Gō-shēn let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Jō-šēph brought in Jā-cōb his father, and set him before Phār-āōh: and Jā-cōb blessed Phār-āōh.

8 And Phār-āōh said unto Jā-cōb, How old art thou?

9 And Jā-cōb said unto Phār-āōh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jā-cōb blessed Phār-āōh, and went out from before Phār-āōh.

11 ¶ And Jō-šēph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Ē-gypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rām-ē-sēs, as Phār-āōh had commanded.

12 And Jō-šēph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Ē-gypt and all the land of Cā-nā-ān fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Jō-šēph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Ē-gypt, and in the land of Cā-nā-ān, for the corn which they bought: and Jō-šēph brought the money into Phār-āōh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Ē-gypt, and in the land of Cā-nā-ān, all the Ē-gypt-īāns came unto Jō-šēph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Jō-šēph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Jō'sěph: and Jō'sěph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Phâr'āoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Jō'sěph bought all the land of Ē'gypt for Phâr'āoh; for the Ē'gypt-tiāns sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Phâr'āoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Ē'gypt even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Phâr'āoh, and did eat their portion which Phâr'āoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Jō'sěph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Phâr'āoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Phâr'āoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Phâr'āoh's servants.

26 And Jō'sěph made it a law over the land of Ē'gypt unto this day, that Phâr'āoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the priests only, which became not Phâr'āoh's.

27 ¶ And Īs'rā-ěl dwelt in the land of Ē'gypt, in the country of Gō-shēn; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Jā'cōb lived in the land of Ē'gypt seventeen years: so the whole age of Jā'cōb was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time drew nigh that Īs'rā-ěl must die: and he called his son Jō'sěph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Ē'gypt:

30 But I will lie with my fathers, and thou shalt carry me out of Ē'gypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he sware unto him. And Īs'rā-ěl bowed himself upon the bed's head.

CHAPTER 48

AND it came to pass after these things, that one told Jō'sěph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Mă-năs'sēh and Ē-phră-īm.

2 And one told Jā'cōb, and said, Behold, thy son Jō'sěph cometh unto thee: and Īs'rā-ěl strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jā'cōb said unto Jō'sěph, God Almighty appeared unto me at Lüz in the land of Că-nă-ăn, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee for an everlasting possession.

5 ¶ And now thy two sons, Ē-phră-īm and Mă-năs'sēh, which were born unto thee in the land of Ē'gypt before I came unto thee into Ē'gypt, are mine; as Reu'bēn and Sīm'ē-ōn, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begettest after them, shall be thine, and shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Pă-dăn, Ră-chěl died by me in the land of Că-nă-ăn in the way, when yet there was but a little way to come unto Ē-phrăth: and I buried her there in the way of Ē-phrăth; the same is Běth-lě-hēm.

8 And Īs'rā-ěl beheld Jō'sěph's sons, and said, Who are these?

9 And Jō'sěph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given me in this place. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless them.

10 Now the eyes of Īs'rā-ěl were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Īs'rā-ěl said unto Jō'sěph, I had not thought to see thy face: and, lo, God hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Jō'sěph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

14 And Īs'rā-ěl stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ē-phră-īm's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Mă-năs'sēh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; for Mă-năs'sēh was the firstborn.

15 ¶ And he blessed Jō'sěph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Ā-bră-hăm and Ī'sāac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,

16 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Ā-bră-hăm and Ī'sāac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Jō'sěph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ē-phră-īm, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ē-phră-īm's head unto Mă-năs'sēh's head.

18 And Jō'sěph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee shall Īś-rā-ēl bless, saying, God make thee as Ē-phrā-īm and as Mă-nās-sēh: and he set Ē-phrā-īm before Mă-nās-sēh.

21 And Īś-rā-ēl said unto Jō-šēph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover I have given to thee one portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Ām-ō-rīte with my sword and with my bow.

CHAPTER 49

AND Jā-cōb called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jā-cōb; and hearken unto Īś-rā-ēl your father.

3 ¶ Rēu-bēn, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ Sīm-ē-on and Lē-vī are brethren; instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jā-cōb, and scatter them in Īś-rā-ēl.

8 ¶ Jūd-āh, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Jūd-āh is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The sceptre shall not depart from Jūd-āh, nor a law-giver from between his feet, until Shī-lōh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

14 ¶ Īś-sā-chār is a strong ass couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dăn shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Īś-rā-ēl.

17 Dăn shall be a serpent by the way, an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

19 ¶ Gād, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

21 ¶ Nāph-tā-lī is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ Jō-šēph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:

23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him:

24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jā-cōb; (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Īś-rā-ēl:)

25 Even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb:

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Jō-šēph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

27 ¶ Bēn-jā-mīn shall ravin as a wolf: in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 ¶ All these are the twelve tribes of Īś-rā-ēl: and this is it that their father spake unto them, and blessed them; every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them, and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ē-phrōn the Hīt-tīte,

30 In the cave that is in the field of Măch-pē-lāh, which is before Măm-rē, in the land of Cā-nā-ān, which Ā-brā-hām bought with the field of Ē-phrōn the Hīt-tīte for a possession of a buryingplace.

31 There they buried Ā-brā-hām and Sār-āh his wife; there they buried Ī-sāac and Rē-bēk-āh his wife; and there I buried Lē-āh.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is therein was from the children of Hēth.

33 And when Jā-cōb had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

CHAPTER 50

AND Jō-šēph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Jō-šēph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Īś-rā-ēl.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Ē-gyp-tiāns mourned for him threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Jō-šēph spake unto the house of Phār-āōh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Phār-āōh, saying,

5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me in the land of Cā-nă-ăn, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Phâr-āōh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶ And Jō-šěph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Phâr-āōh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Ē-gŷpt,

8 And all the house of Jō-šěph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Gō-shĕn.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Ā-tăd, which is beyond Jôr-dăn, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Cā-nă-ăn-ites, saw the mourning in the floor of Ā-tăd, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Ē-gŷp-tiāns: wherefore the name of it was called Ā-bĕl-mĭz-rā-ĭm, which is beyond Jôr-dăn.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Cā-nă-ăn, and buried him in the cave of the field of Măch-pĕ-lăh, which Ā-bră-hăm bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ē-phrōn the Hĭt-tĭte, before Măm-rĕ.

14 ¶ And Jō-šěph returned into Ē-gŷpt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Jō-šěph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Jō-šěph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Jō-šěph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Jō-šěph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Jō-šěph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Jō-šěph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

22 ¶ And Jō-šěph dwelt in Ē-gŷpt, he, and his father's house: and Jō-šěph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Jō-šěph saw Ē-phră-ĭm's children of the third generation: the children also of Mă-chĭr the son of Mă-năs-sĕh were brought up upon Jō-šěph's knees.

24 And Jō-šěph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Ā-bră-hăm, to Ī-sāac, and to Jā-cōb.

25 And Jō-šěph took an oath of the children of Īs-ră-ĕl, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Jō-šěph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Ē-gŷpt.
